Joe Bugel enters his first season as the Cardinals' head coach.

William V. Bidwill

President

Nineteen ninety marks William V. Bidwill's 46th year with the Cardinals, an association that began as a ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president.

The 59-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuous professional football franchise dating back to 1898 and, along with the Chicago Bears, boasts the distinction as one of two charter members of the National Football League in 1920.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife Violet guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years followed jointly by their two sons, William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

After being named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the Cardinals on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the day-to-day Cardinal operation. The team's new training complex in south Tempe, Arizona, scheduled to open early in the 1990 football season, is the latest major project he has overseen.

Also an active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill recently directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's new organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes.

Bidwill was appointed to the NFL's Management Council executive committee in 1989 and was a pivotal voice in Arizona's successful recent bid for Super Bowl XXVII in 1993. He also chairs the league meeting site committee, co-chairs the Bert Bell Player Benefit Player Retirement Board, and serves on the executive committee of NFL Films.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children—sons William, Jr., Michael, Patrick, and Timothy, and daughter Nicole.

Larry Wilson

Vice President & General Manager

Larry Wilson, regarded as one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history who currently is making his mark as head of the Cardinals' football operations, begins his fourth decade in the National Football League in 1990.

A Hall of Fame defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, the 52-year-old Wilson's 31-year NFL career started with 13 seasons (1960-72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson began climbing the club's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973-76) and director of professional personnel (1977-88) for the next 16 years. He also handled the team as head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over San Francisco and the New York Giants.

Midway through the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, President Bill Bidwill appointed Wilson vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona. Recently, his new responsibility has included the hiring of new Head Coach Joe Bugel and an active role in planning the Cardinals' new training complex in south Tempe, Arizona. Also, the Cardinals' change to red pants for 1990, to be worn when the team sports white jerseys, was made at Wilson's suggestion.

As a player, Wilson reached near-legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book. He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), career interception returns for touchdowns (5), and single-game interceptions return yardage (115). His 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on Dec. 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history. His 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia still ranks third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times. He intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking him fifth in that category in Card annals.

He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in January of 1978.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was drafted as a running back out of the University of Utah in the seventh round of the 1960 draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Joe Rhein

Executive Vice President

Cardinal Executive Vice President Joe Rhein has proven Thomas Wolfe wrong. The Cardinals' executive vice president did go home again.

The team's publicity director in St. Louis from 1972-76 and its assistant publicist in 1971, Rhein returned to the Cardinals in August of 1989 to serve as the administrative counterpart to Vice President and General Manager Larry Wilson after a 12-year hiatus at the National Football League office in New York.

Rhein's first year in Arizona was hectic. He played an instrumental role in the NFL's award of Super Bowl XXVII to Arizona as an advisor to the Phoenix '93 Committee, the organization which shaped Arizona's presentation to NFL owners. He is now a member of the local Super Bowl host group's executive committee that will coordinate all planning activities for the 1993 game.

Rhein has been a guiding voice in the formation of Cardinal Charities and as its vice president will play an active role in the awarding of the foundation's first grants during the 1990 football season. He also has played a major role in the development of the team's new training complex in south Tempe, Arizona, scheduled to open in early fall of 1990.

Additionally, he is a member of the committee recently formed by Phoenix Mayor Paul Johnson to better promote the Valley of the Sun and Arizona.

The 42-year-old Rhein joined the NFL in 1977 as assistant to the president of the National Football Conference, a position he held until serving as the league's director of administration from 1983-89. In the latter capacity, Rhein coordinated the activities of the league office departments and was involved in the supervision of the NFL's international efforts, particularly the American Bowl series. He supervised the first three American Bowls in London (1986-88) and the first American Bowl in Tokyo (1989).

Additionally, Rhein served as secretary of the NFL Charities foundation and was involved in preparation of the league playing schedule and coordination of the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl Game from 1977-89.

Rhein began his career as assistant sports information director at Oklahoma State from 1969-71 following his 1969 graduation from the University of Missouri in journalism.

A native of Belleville, Illinois, Rhein and his wife, Barbara, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz. with daughters Rachel (16) and Jessica (11).

Erik Widmark

Director of Pro Personnel

Erik Widmark, 42, begins his second season as the Cardinals' director of pro personnel following his promotion from assistant in September, 1988 when Larry Wilson was named general manager.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Widmark spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1983-88 as a scout, chief scout, director of pro personnel, and special assistant to the head coach.

He joined the professional ranks following an extensive collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Cal Western, the University of San Diego, Cal Poly-Pomona, Pasadena City College, and the University of Oregon. He also served as head coach at Pasadena in 1979.

As offensive coordinator at Pasadena in 1978, the squad finished 11-1 and won the final Junior Rose Bowl by downing Jones County of Mississippi 38-9. As head coach the following year, Widmark's team posted an 8-3 mark and captured the school's second consecutive Potato Bowl, emblematic of the junior college championship in California.

A former wide receiver, Widmark played collegiately at Cal Western (now U.S. International) where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education. He played for two seasons with the San Diego Chargers before two knee operations ended his playing career.

Widmark, a native of Iowa, was raised in Scottsdale, Ariz. where he attended Arcadia High School. He and his wife, Cinda, reside in Phoenix with daughters Jessica (11) and Erika (8), and son Dallas (10).

Joe Bugel

Head Coach

Enthusiasm, unabashed.

Bugel, Joe.

They should be listed side-by-side on the same page of a dictionary. They're one and the same.

Intense? When necessary.

Workaholic? Six months a year.

Tough? At times. Childhood in western Pennsylvania breeds toughness. Mike Ditka. Joe Montana. Joe Namath. Joe Bugel.

Sentimental? Occasionally.

Combative? When provoked. "He'll get in anybody's face," reflects Redskins center Jeff Bostic, brother of former Cardinal offensive guard Joe Bostic, a card-carrying member of Bugel's "Hogs," and one of four Redskin offensive linemen who earned Pro Bowl recognition under Bugel.

Combustible? Once in a while.

But enthusiastic? Always. As Bugel is quick to offer, "Nothing great is ever accomplished without enthusiasm!"

The new Phoenix Cardinals head coach is an engaging blend of football, family, and friend, traits that have served him well during a coaching career and marriage that began in Kentucky in the mid-1960s. Eight states and three daughters later, the Bugels have arrived in Arizona with enthusiasm, of course!

The Formative Years

Bugel was born March 10, 1940 in Pittsburgh. Athletics consumed his formative years. At age 12, he was the catcher on a Pittsburgh youth baseball team that reached the Little League World Series final before losing to Redlands, Calif. He excelled in football (fullback and linebacker), basketball (he once scored 47 points in a game), baseball (catcher), and volleyball (setter) at Pittsburgh's Munhall High School.

But western Pennsylvania is football crazy, so it came as no surprise that the gridiron captured the future coach's fancy.

The undersized overachiever's success in athletics and exposure to a region of the country known for its blue-collar work ethic left an indelible mark on Bugel.

"It was a hotbed of high school football," he reflects. "Boys were born with footballs in their cribs. And the old steel mills were really buzzing. The blue-collar work ethic of the people in that area established a philosophy of life for me. You were either going to be tough or you would be run out of town."

Although Bugel was one of three children (older sister Elaine and younger brother, Tom, a three-year starting linebacker at Ohio State) of a family that owned an electroplating company, he served his time in the steel mills. He took a job in the mills after graduating from high school. Two weeks later, he knew that wasn't the life for him.

He began making phone calls. A Pittsburgh dentist acquainted with the Bugel family was a Western Kentucky graduate. Bugel was intrigued. He called and arranged an interview with the head coach. He drove to Bowling Green, Kentucky.

He sold himself successfully and landed a partial scholarship. He supplemented it with a part-time job in a kitchen.

By the end of spring practice, Bugel, who bulked to 240 pounds to play college football, had earned a full scholarship. At the end of five years at Western, he was a four-year starter who had led the Hilltoppers to a 27-0 Tangerine Bowl victory against the Otto Graham-coached Coast Guard Academy which still rates as "one of the greatest thrills of my career" according to Bugel. He was all-OVC in 1963. He was elected team captain by his sophomore year. And he was hired by Western in 1964 as a graduate assistant coach.

He had escaped the steel-mill life.

"You went to college on a scholarship or you were going to work 8-4 or 4-12 in the mills," he ponders now.

His years at Western Kentucky not only pointed him toward a coaching career, it also formed the foundation for his personal life.

Brenda Sage, a Tennessee native, was working in the school's sports information office in 1968. Bugel, then an assistant coach, invited her for a date (to a basketball game). Three months later they eloped.

Now 21 years later, they have three daughters—Angie (20), Holly (17), and Jennifer (13)—and two female cats.

 - Asst. Coach, Navy, 1969-72
 - Asst. Coach, Western Kentucky, 1964-68
- Winning Ways: In 15 years in the NFL, teams employing Bugel posted a 144-82 composite record (.637), a span that included 13 winning seasons, 8 playoff appearances (21 games), 6 conference championship games, and 3 Super Bowls.

"I'm surrounded by a lot of women," Bugel chuckles. "Seriously, I'm really proud of my family. I'm proud of my wife because she has been a strong force in my life."

Ironic Reunions

As a two-way star (offensive guard and linebacker) at Western Kentucky, Bugel always enjoyed the school's cross-state rivalry with Eastern Kentucky. That annual match-up now has taken an ironic twist because Eastern's star quarterback during Bugel's days at Western was current Arizona State Head Coach Larry Marmie. The two also began their coaching careers in the Ohio Valley Conference—Bugel at Western Kentucky and Marmie at Morehead (Ky.) State.

They used to share billing, now they'll share a stadium—Sun Devil Stadium.

"Larry was the class quarterback in the league," Bugel remembers. "The guy could beat you by himself so we had to do things to try to break his spirit. We tried to intimidate him ...

knock him to the ground on every play ... throw mud on his shoes ... things like that."

Membership in the NFL's head-coaching fraternity also reunites Bugel with a former roommate—colorful Jerry Glanville, the new Atlanta head coach.

As assistant coaches at Western Kentucky (Bugel the offensive coordinator, Glanville the defensive coordinator), the two shared a makeshift office under the stands of the school's basketball bleachers and a tiny log cabin with no heat and one bed. At night, after flipping a coin to see who slept in the lone bed, the two would map their futures on the back of pizza boxes.

"The only things we ever ate were pizza and doughnuts," Bugel laughs. "We drew up plays on the pizza boxes after dinner."

Glanville reflects, "That was as happy as I've ever been playing or coaching football. For Joe and me to end up head coaches in the NFL you send that script to Hollywood and they'd say it's too corny."

Bugel and Glanville later reunited in 1976 on the Detroit Lions' staff.

Coaching Roots

Joe Bugel has drawn his coaching philosophies from the men who influenced him the most—coaches he worked for and played under. Bugel reflects on his most vivid recollections of each.

•Joe Gibbs, Washington Redskins: "A tremendous problem solver. He worked through problems no matter how bad the situation."

•Bum Phillips, Houston Oilers: "A tremendous motivator of men. He made sure they were ready to play. He produced great team chemistry."

•Rick Forzano, Navy and Detroit Lions: "He was very organized. A great detail man. He had unmatched organizational skills."

•Woody Hayes, Ohio State: "He was the toughest taskmaster I've ever been around and absolutely relentless. A great coach. He related everything to warfare. He wanted to be General Patton. If he could have worn those two guns on the sideline, he would have. When he addressed the team, I could envision the same American flag behind him that you associate with Patton."

•Earl Bruce, Iowa State: "A Woody Hayes disciple and a total competitor. He emulated Woody in many ways."

•Nick Denes, Western Kentucky: "The most caring coach I've been around. He truly cared for his players. He loved them."

•Jimmy Feix, Western Kentucky:
"Like Nick Denes, also a players' coach. Players enjoyed playing for him."

•Nick Kliskey, Munhall High School, Pittsburgh, Pa.: "One of the toughest guys I've ever been around. He was so physical. He played center, fullback, and linebacker under Jock Sutherland at Pittsburgh and it showed. Everything was brute force and discipline. He put his foot up my rear end about three times a week. He left one lasting impression on me: 'If you are going to play football, you'd better be tough.'"

The sum of the above is translated into the following by Bugel.

"You'd like to treat everybody the same, but it isn't possible," he says. "What is possible and important is finding each individual's 'hot button.' Everybody has one! A coach has to find it. That may mean putting your arm around a player; it may mean kicking him in the butt.

"I've never seen anyone successful cut corners. That's not the way to be successful.

"Great character and talent can go a long way. Character plays a great part in professional athletics. You don't want to let your friends down. Team chemistry and character are the difference on winning teams. 'Character' is not just a word."

Pedigree

In 15 years in the NFL, teams employing Bugel posted a 144-82 record (.637 winning percentage), including 13 winning seasons and eight playoff appearances. Besides two Super Bowl rings in three Super Bowl appearances, he has participated in six conference championship games and 21 playoff tilts.

At Washington, Bugel learned time is no consideration in the pursuit of winning.

"We had a room at the (Redskin) facility we called the Las Vegas room," Bugel ponders. "There were no clocks so you didn't have to worry about time. We're not worried about time here, either. Whatever it takes, we'll do. If you can get it done by midnight, fine. If you can't get it done until four in the morning, fine."

Bugel feels his background has prepared him well for the challenge of being a head coach in the National Football League.

"I've coached at small colleges, at a service academy, at the major-college level, and in the National Football League. I feel I've worked my way up the ladder," he says.

Nothing symbolizes the emotional loyalty Bugel always has evoked from those around him more than two words: "The Hogs!"

"The Hogs" were Bugel's fabled offensive linemen in Washington. It's a name he unknowingly coined himself in practice in 1982 by yelling "Let's go, Hogs." When the linemen took to the label, Bugel ordered T-shirts that had to be worn once a week. The moniker went public and then national as the Redskins continued to win.

"The Hogs" became NFL chic and an autumn obsession in the nation's capitol.

But it goes further. "The Hogs" were a bonding. Bugel was not just their coach, he was a Hog, too. He made them believe they were as important to winning as the more highly-publicized positions.

His favorite expression: "My ways or Trailways."

"Joe has a way of making you believe you can do anything," says current Hog (tackle) Jim Lachey, Bugel's most recent star pupil.

Adds center Bostic, "He's a guy who loves his players. He's very protective of them. He'll do anything he can for his players."

"We grew together," Bugel says. "We had nine glorious years together. Those guys are responsible for me being where I am today."

Bugel always has been a leader. At one point in high school he had teammates believing it was fun to be on the second team. His teammates nicknamed him Deacon after a local tough guy who Bugel idolized.

Why?

"He was a street fighter. A brawler. He was a tough, tough guy. He never lost," Bugel explains.

At Western Kentucky, the squad included transfers from bigger-name programs like Kentucky and Tennessee. Bugel convinced them the small-college games were just as exciting as the Southeastern Conference.

"He brought all those transfers together and made them part of the team," offers Feix, now the athletic director at Western Kentucky. "He was able to submerge his own ego and feed their big egos. He was a terrific leader; a terrific motivator even as a player."

Super Bowl Rings

Two things nobody in Arizona has missed since Bugel's arrival adorn one finger on each hand. They're Bugel's two Super Bowl rings from his nine years in Washington. They're constant reminders of the price he knows must be paid to achieve the ultimate success in the National Football League.

During his first few days as the new Cardinal head coach, Bugel told the media he would quit wearing the rings in a few days to avoid confusing loyalties.

But he has decided to continue wearing them, saying, "I wear them to let myself know how hard it is to get there. Everybody wants a Super Bowl ring. But it takes a little extra preparation—blood, sweat, and tears—to get one. I hope the players ask me about them."

It's a dream he's not ashamed to discuss, even for the 5-11 Cardinal team he inherited.

"A lot of people feel we're not too far away," he offers. "Those injuries were impossible to overcome last year. We're on the right track here. We have impact football players."

Plan of Attack

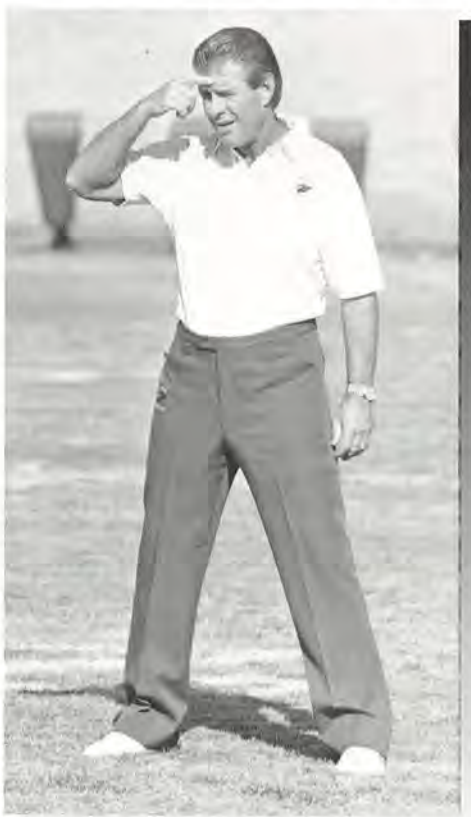

Hustle. Attack. Hit. Fun. Consistency. Emotion. Communication. Excitement. Chemistry. And, of course, the omnipresent enthusiasm. Lots of words creep into any description of Bugel-style Cardinal football.

"Your team is going to play like your personality and our personality is going to be enthusiastic. We want to attack because in the NFC East, you can't be scared. You've got to tee it up and go after it," Bugel states. "This is a tourist town but we can't be a tourist team. We've got to go East to those cold cities like Washington, New York, and Philadelphia and win. If we can pass that test, we will have a real advantage in Phoenix because of the heat. That heat is something to be proud of! We've got to be tough."

"We want our great players to continue playing great and make our good players play great. We want to be a challenging football team, an entertaining football team. Practice habits are something we're going to talk about constantly. When you practice well and you practice hard, it will show up in the month of December when it's the dash for the cash. That's when you want to be real, real good. If you have a great practice tempo starting from the first day of training camp to the last week of the season, you're going to be successful."

Bugel's master plan is far from limited to the field. He believes success in the National Football League must encompass the entire organization.

"If everybody is on the same page, if you keep everybody informed and don't hold any secrets, talk to people, you'll have everybody pulling together. And your chances go up when you're one big family. Everyone has to respect everyone else in the organization. As head coach, I'm just one spoke in the wheel," Bugel feels.

Jerry Rhome

Offensive Coordinator

Jerry Rhome, a former NFL quarterback who spent five seasons (1983-87) on the Washington Redskins' coaching staff with new Phoenix head coach Joe Bugel, is the Cardinals' new offensive coordinator.

Rhorne, 47, spent last season as quarterbacks coach for the Dallas Cowboys where he honed the skills of Troy Aikman, the first selection of last year's NFL draft.

During his five seasons in Washington with Bugel, Rhorne coached veteran signal callers Joe Theismann and Doug Williams while also overseeing the development of young quarterbacks Mark Rypien and Jay Schroeder. Rhorne helped guide a Redskins' offense that finished in the NFL's top 10 four of his five seasons and qualified for two Super Bowls with two different quarterbacks (Theismann and Williams).

Rhorne's two other NFL coaching stops were San Diego as offensive coordinator (1988) and Seattle as quarterbacks/receivers coach (1976-77) and later offensive coordinator (1978-82) for the expansion Seahawks. During his Seattle stay, Rhorne nurtured his reputation for development of young quarterbacks with free agents Jim Zorn and Dave Krieg.

In 1963, the NFL Dallas Cowboys and American Football League N.Y. Jets drafted Rhorne to gain his professional rights prior to the senior season of his record-setting career at Tulsa. Rhorne eventually played four seasons for the Cowboys (1965-68) as a back-up quarterback before concluding his playing career with Cleveland (1969), Houston (1970), and the Los Angeles Rams (1971-72).

The Heisman Trophy runner-up and Walter Camp Trophy recipient in 1964, Rhorne began his collegiate playing career at Southern Methodist (1960-61) before transferring to Tulsa where he set 17 NCAA passing records. He returned to his alma mater to break into the coaching ranks from 1973-75 following his playing career.

Rhorne also earns credit for the early development of former Tulsa and Seattle Seahawk wide receiver Steve Largent, the NFL's all-time leading pass receiver. As quarterbacks and receivers coach and offensive coordinator at Tulsa for three years and later as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Seattle for seven campaigns, including the title of offensive coordinator for the last five years, Rhorne tutored Largent during the early stages of his record-shattering career.

Rhorne, a Dallas native, and his wife, Sharon, have three children—daughters Shannon (20), and Nicole (17), and son Brett (10).

Joe Pascale

Defensive Coordinator

Joe Pascale, the Cardinals' linebackers coach the past four years, was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator by new Phoenix head coach Joe Bugel.

A veteran of 23 years of coaching, Pascale joined the Cardinals in 1986 after serving as defensive backs coach for the USFL's New Jersey Generals from 1984-85.

Prior to his USFL tenure, Pascale held assistant positions in the Canadian Football League (CFL). He served two seasons with the Ottawa Rough Riders, handling the defensive line in 1982 and quarterbacks and receivers in 1983. Previously, he was employed by the Montreal Alouettes, working as defensive line coach and player personnel director in 1980, then promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981 when he also assumed the defensive line and special teams duties.

The 44-year-old Pascale entered the coaching field in 1967 as a graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut where he starred as an all-East linebacker as a senior. After two seasons as an assistant coach for UConn's freshmen team, Pascale moved to the University of Rhode Island in 1970. He coached four years at Rhode Island, overseeing the linebackers for one season and serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1971-73.

Pascale accepted a job at Idaho State with similar coordinator responsibilities in 1974 and was then appointed the Bengals' head coach in 1976. He moved to Princeton, spending one season as linebacker coach and two campaigns as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Pascale has spent 19 as a defensive coach. During his tenure with the Generals, the team advanced to the USFL playoffs both years with records of 11-7 in 1985 and 14-4 in 1984. Pascale came to the Cardinals after being associated with playoff teams in each of his previous six seasons in professional football.

A native of New York City, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Connecticut and completed an advanced graduate curriculum in education administration at UConn as well.

Born April 17, 1946, Pascale and his wife, Lucille, have a 13-year-old son, Joseph.

Ted Cottrell

Defensive Line

Ted Cottrell, who helped mold the Buffalo Bills' defensive line into one of the NFL's strongest units as the Bills' defensive line coach the past four seasons (1986-89), will coach the same position for the Cardinals.

Under Cottrell, Buffalo nose tackle Fred Smerlas (1988) and defensive end Bruce Smith (1987-89) earned trips to the Pro Bowl and the 1988 Bill defensive unit ranked first in the American Football Conference.

Cottrell received his first taste of professional coaching as an assistant to Marv Levy in Kansas City (1981-82) as linebacker coach followed by two seasons (1984-85) as defensive line coach for the USFL New Jersey Generals. He joined the Bills and rejoined Levy in 1986.

A native of Chester, Pa., Cottrell, 42, entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Rutgers, from 1973-80, including one year as defensive coordinator (1980) after serving as defensive line coach for the first seven seasons (1973-79). In 1976, Rutgers led the nation in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense, and finished unbeaten with a no. 17 national ranking. He returned to Rutgers for one season in 1983 as defensive coordinator following his first professional position in Kansas City.

Chosen in the seventh round of the 1969 draft by Atlanta, Cottrell played two seasons as a linebacker with the Falcons (1970-71) and completed his playing career with the Canadian Football League Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1972).

He and his wife, Barbara, have one son, Theodore (7).

Bobby Hammond

Running Backs

Former NFL running back Bobby Hammond, 38, the New York Jets' running backs coach the past seven seasons, begins his first season coaching the same position for the Cardinals.

In 1988, three of Hammond's proteges—Freeman McNeil (944 yards), Johnny Hector (561 yards), and Roger Vick (540 yards)—finished among the top 20 rushers in the AFC, making the Jets' trio the three highest-ranking backs on one team in the NFL.

Hammond played five seasons in the NFL—three and one-half with the New York Giants and one and one-half with Washington. The highlight of his playing career came in 1977 when he was the Giants' most valuable player with 1,466 combined yards, posted a team-high 577 yards rushing, and finished second in the NFL with a 10.4-yard punt return average.

Following his midseason release in 1979, Hammond joined the Redskins where he rushed for 265 yards on 45 carries and caught 24 passes for 203 yards in 1980.

The all-time career rushing leader at Morgan State University with 2,548 yards on 590 rushes, Hammond surpassed the collegiate exploits of Leroy Kelly and Frenchy Fuqua at the Baltimore, Maryland school from 1971-75.

A native of Orangeburg, South Carolina, Hammond attended high school in Bayside, New York where he was a three-year all-city football standout. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children—sons Robert (11) and Jon (9), and daughter Alexandria, (4).

Jim Johnson

Defensive Secondary

Jim Johnson, the Cardinals' defensive line coach the past four seasons, moves to the Phoenix secondary in 1990 to tutor the team's defensive backs for new head coach Joe Bugel.

Johnson, a 23-year coaching veteran at the professional and collegiate levels, began his professional coaching career with one-year stints at Jacksonville (1985) and Oklahoma (1984) in the United States Football League following seven years on the Notre Dame coaching staff.

He joined the Fighting Irish as secondary coach in 1977 when the school claimed the national championship. In 1981 under Head Coach Gerry Faust, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator and then to assistant head coach in 1983. In 1980, his defenders ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense, while his 1982 and 1983 clubs finished 10th and 14th, respectively, in NCAA total defense.

An all-Big Eight quarterback and team most valuable player at Missouri in 1962, Johnson played in three post-season games—the 1960 Orange Bowl, and 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl, and the East-West Shrine Game following his senior season. He was named the Bluebonnet Bowl's MVP.

Following his college days, Johnson played two seasons with the Buffalo Bills from 1963-64.

He launched his coaching career at Joplin (Mo.) High School in 1965. After two seasons at Joplin, Johnson was named head coach at Missouri Southern College in 1967. He later served four-year college tenures at Drake (1969-72) and Indiana (1973-76) as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach, respectively.

In all, Johnson coached in six bowl games—1971 Pecan, 1972 Pioneer, 1977 and 1978 Cotton, 1980 Sugar, and 1982 Liberty.

Born May 26, 1941 in Maywood, Ill., Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education at Missouri.

He and his wife, Vicky, have two children, Scott (24) and Michelle (22).

Tom Lovat

Offensive Line

Tom Lovat completed the first Phoenix coaching staff of new Head Coach Joe Bugel when he was named the team's new offensive line coach.

Lovat, 51, is a former head coach at the University of Utah and an ex-Cardinal assistant coach who logged nine seasons in the NFL prior to spending last fall as the offensive line coach at Wyoming.

Lovat spent 1985-88 with the Indianapolis Colts as assistant head coach-offensive line following three seasons (1981-84) in St. Louis as the Cardinals' offensive line coach and one campaign (1980) coaching the same position for Green Bay. His first professional job was as a defensive coach for the CFL Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1971.

A native of Bingham Canyon, Utah, Lovat is a 1961 graduate of the University of Utah where he was a three-year football and baseball letterman for the Utes, earning all-Skyline Conference accolades on the diamond.

While completing his 1968 master's degree at Utah, Lovat began his coaching career in 1967 with the Utes and later at Idaho State. He returned to Utah in 1972 as an assistant and was named the school's head coach in 1974, a position he held through the 1976 season.

Lovat moved to Stanford with Head Coach Bill Walsh from 1977-79 before joining Head Coach Bart Starr's staff at Green Bay.

Lovat and his wife, Lyn, have three children—daughter Johna (27) and sons Matthew (22) and Mark (20).

Mike Murphy

Defensive Assistant & Quality Control

Mike Murphy, a member of the Detroit Lions' coaching staff the past five years under head coaches Darryl Rogers and Wayne Fontes, joins the Cardinals as a defensive assistant and quality control coach.

Murphy, 45, an offensive assistant and linebackers coach for the Lions who will assist Cardinal defensive coordinator Joe Pascale with the Phoenix linebackers, brings a 25-year coaching resume to his new position.

Following his playing days as a guard and linebacker at Huron (S.D.) College, the New York City native began his coaching career in 1966 in Woonsocket, S.D. and later in the Colorado prep ranks in Boulder and Denver.

He moved into the collegiate arena as an assistant at the University of Vermont (1970-73) as defensive line coach and at Idaho State (1974) where he advanced to defensive coordinator by 1976. The following year he became linebackers coach at Western Illinois, then moved into the professional ranks as defensive coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1979). He later spent one season as defensive line coach for the Chicago Blitz of the United States Football League in 1984.

Murphy has two children—son Sam (18) and daughter Sarah (15).

Ted Plumb

Receivers

Ted Plumb, a 16-year NFL coaching veteran, is the Cardinals' new receivers coach.

Most recently, Plumb served Philadelphia as assistant head coach-offense from 1986-89 during the Eagles' rise to the playoffs and the development of Pro Bowl quarterback Randall Cunningham. Plumb spent the previous six seasons in Chicago as receivers coach for the Bears, including the 1985 Super Bowl championship season.

Plumb, 50, broke into the professional ranks as offensive backfield coach for the New York Giants in 1974 before moving to Atlanta as quarterbacks and receivers coach for the Falcons from 1977-79.

A native of Reno, Nevada, Plumb was raised in northern California and played for the Buffalo Bills in 1962 following a successful collegiate career as a wide receiver at Baylor. He began his coaching career in the Texas prep ranks at Raymond High School (1963-64) and Lubbock High School (1965) before moving to Cerritos (Calif.) Junior College from 1966-67.

Three seasons (1968-70) at Texas Christian as receivers/tight ends coach, one (1971) at Tulsa and two (1972-73) at Kansas in the same role followed before his initial NFL job with the Giants in 1974.

Plumb and his wife, Marianna, have three children—sons Loyal (28) and John (27) and daughter Molly (21).

Pete Rodriguez

Special Teams

Former University of Arizona graduate assistant coach Pete Rodriguez, a 24-year coaching veteran at the high school, college, and professional levels who spent the past two seasons as special teams coach of the Los Angeles Raiders, will coach the same position for the Phoenix Cardinals.

A Chicago native, Rodriguez spent the 1968-69 seasons at Arizona coaching linebackers under head coaches Darrell Mudra and Bob Weber following his collegiate playing career as a offensive guard and linebacker at Western State College in Colorado and two years as a high school head coach in Colorado.

He later served as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois (1970-73), Florida State (1974-75), and Iowa State (1976-78) before a four-year stint as head coach at Western Illinois from 1979-82.

Rodriguez, 49, broke into professional football in 1983-84 as defensive line coach for the USFL Michigan Panthers and spent the 1985 season as defensive line coach for the USFL's Denver Gold. After the Gold merged with the Jacksonville Bulls following the 1985 season, Rodriguez made stops as defensive coordinator at Northern Iowa in 1986 and the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders in 1987.

Born July 25, 1940, Rodriguez has two daughters—Regina (25), and Marla (23),

Bob Rogucki

Strength & Conditioning

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key), strength and conditioning coach at West Point the past seven years, begins his first year in the same capacity for the Cardinals.

Rogucki, 37, also recently worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa.

Rogucki joined the staff at West Point in 1983 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

A native of Rosemont, West Virginia, he was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college athlete and graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975. He then coached football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level before his first college coaching stint in 1981 at Penn State.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (10) and daughter Katie (6).

George Boone

Director of Player Personnel

George Boone, a 22-year veteran of the Cardinals' organization, has served as director of player personnel since 1973.

He oversees the club's scouting and drafting operations, directs eight full-time scouts, and manages the team's involvement with the National Scouting combine, a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams in pooling scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director's post with the Cards in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, the 52-year-old Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960-65).

He and his wife, Dedee, have four daughters and a son. They reside in Phoenix.

Bill Bidwill, Jr.

Scout

Bill Bidwill, Jr., who, like his father, grew up actively participating in many phases of the club's football operation, begins his fifth season as a member of the scouting staff.

Born in St. Louis, Bidwill followed his father's lead by attending Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., majoring in finance and earning a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1985. He also played four years of rugby for Georgetown during his undergraduate days.

Since joining the team's scouting staff in 1985, Bidwill has worked closely with Player Personnel Director George Boone. In 1988, Bidwill engineered the department's conversion to a computerized scouting information data bank. The club's scouting staff now sports laptop computers and floppy disks instead of volumes of notebooks and handwritten reports.

He also is co-producing the Cardinals' weekly team television show for the second consecutive season.

Bidwill and his wife, Nicole, reside in Tempe, Ariz. with their daughter, Josephine (1).

Bo Bolinger

Scout

Bo Bolinger, a 19-year member of the Cardinals' organization, is primarily responsible for collegiate scouting in the far West region of the United States.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (CFL).

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma in 1956 following his playing days with the Sooners. After a stop on the high school level, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

As an Oklahoma player, Bolinger earned all-America recognition in 1955 and twice was named an all-Big Eight Conference guard.

The 57-year-old Bolinger and his wife Barbara have three daughters and four grandchildren and live in Tempe, Ariz.

Harry Gilmer

Scout

Harry Gilmer, a 27-year veteran of NFL coaching, begins his eighth season as a Cardinal scout.

Gilmer began his coaching and scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957. Four years later, he joined the Minnesota Vikings in a similar capacity.

In 1965, he was named head coach of the Detroit Lions, a position he held for two seasons, before arriving in St. Louis in 1967 for the first of two tenures as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach.

In 1970, he tutored the signal-callers in Atlanta only to return to St. Louis in 1975 for a seven-year stint as quarterbacks coach.

An all-America quarterback at the University of Alabama, Gilmer was the first player chosen in the 1948 NFL Draft by Washington. He earned all-pro honors in 1950 and '52 before retiring as a player after the 1956 season.

Gilmer and his wife, Katherine, reside in O'Fallon, Mo. They have a son, three daughters, and four grandchildren.

Jerry Hardaway

Scout

Jerry Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the college and high school levels, begins his third season on the Cardinals' scouting staff.

The 38-year-old Hardaway coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at California (1984-86) where he also coordinated the Golden Bears' film exchange program and was utilized in the school's national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under the legendary Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During his stay at Grambling State, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 record with four conference championships.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

Hardaway also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton High School in Memphis-Arlington, Tenn. in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep School in Richmond, Calif., just prior to joining the Cardinals.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University where he served as co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway graduated from SIU with a degree in speech education in 1974 and earned a master's degree in sports administration at Grambling State in 1979. He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (3), and a daughter, Jheri (1). They reside in Cary, N.C.

Bill Jobko

Scout

Bill Jobko begins his second season on the Cardinals' scouting staff following a 23-year playing, coaching, and administrative career with the Atlanta Falcons' organization.

The 54-year-old Jobko served the Falcons as a scout for 10 years, as linebackers coach in 1968, and most recently as director of pro personnel from 1978 through the 1988 season after finishing his nine-year playing career as the Falcons' defensive captain during the team's inaugural 1966 season in Atlanta.

The former NFL linebacker also played for the Rams (1958-62) and Vikings (1963-65).

A standout linebacker and offensive guard as a collegian at Ohio State, Jobko played on Buckeye teams that won three Big Ten championships, two Rose Bowls (1955, '58), and two national championships (1954, '57). He was named most valuable player of the '57 national titleist.

Jobko and his wife, Julie, the parents of five children, reside in Lilburn, Ga.

Hank Kuhlmann

Scout

Hank Kuhlmann, the Cardinals' running backs coach the past four seasons who served as the team's interim head coach for the final five games of 1989, moves into the team's scouting department after 27 years as a coach that also included NFL stops at Green Bay and Chicago.

The 52-year-old native of Webster Groves, Mo. received his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the University of Missouri before playing four years as a catcher in the St. Louis baseball Cardinals' organization from 1959-62.

Kuhlmann then returned to his alma mater to serve for three years (1963-65) as Missouri's freshman football coach.

In 1966, he was promoted to running backs coach, contributing to Tigers' teams that appeared in the 1968 Gator Bowl and 1969 Orange Bowl.

Kuhlmann joined the professional ranks as Green Bay's special teams coach in 1972, the season the Packers won the NFC Central Division title. In 1975, he followed Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine to Notre Dame, assuming running backs and special teams duties. Kuhlmann's stay in South Bend was highlighted by a national championship and Cotton Bowl title in 1977 and an appearance in the 1976 Gator Bowl.

After three seasons at Notre Dame, he returned to the NFL as running backs and special teams coach for the Chicago Bears. With Kuhlmann honing the exceptional skills of Walter Payton, the Bears gained a wild-card playoff berth in 1979.

In 1983, Kuhlmann became assistant head coach of the Birmingham Stallions, coordinating the offense and serving as running backs and special teams coach. Under his tutelage, Birmingham led the USFL in rushing in both 1983 and '84. In addition, the Stallions won the 1984 Southern Division crown and 1985 Eastern Conference title.

Kuhlmann and his wife, Donna, have two children, Jeff (21) and Tracey (13).

Red Phillips

Scout

Aubrey "Red" Phillips, a former 19-year veteran of the San Diego Chargers' scouting and personnel departments, begins his fifth season as a full-time Cardinal scout.

Phillips, 59, spent 1985 with National Football Scouting, Inc. which scouts the top 100 college players in the United States. He worked nearly two decades with the Chargers, rising from a scout in 1967 to director of player personnel in 1975. He became chief scout for San Diego in 1979, a position he held for five years.

A former center and linebacker at Texas Tech, Phillips played professionally in Canada for Saskatchewan. He also coached at Texas Tech, Southwest Louisiana and Northwest Louisiana.

Born in Abbott, Texas, Phillips and his wife, Kay, have three sons and two daughters and reside in Escondido, Calif.

Stan West

Scout

Stan West, who became the first full-time scout in Cardinal history in 1965, begins his 25th season with the organization in 1990. A senior member of the scouting department, he is assigned to the near West region of the country.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, West served as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-64.

An all-America lineman at the University of Oklahoma in 1949, he was the Los Angeles Rams' first-round draft choice the following year. He was named to the Pro Bowl in only his second season as a linebacker in 1951, the year the Rams defeated Cleveland for the NFL championship, and again in '52. West played for Los Angeles until 1955 when he joined the New York Giants. The following two seasons he played for the Cardinals in Chicago.

A Norman, Oklahoma resident, West and his wife, Mary Frances, have two sons and three grandchildren.

John Omohundro

Head Trainer

John Omohundro begins his 24th season with the Cardinals and his 20th as head trainer.

Following high school graduation, Omohundro was named head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. The following year, he enrolled at the University of Wyoming where he remained until joining the Cardinals in 1967.

He served as the Cardinals' assistant trainer for four seasons from 1967-70 before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

A native of Salt Lake City, Omohundro, his wife, Martha, and their two sons, Johnny (16) and Jimmy (14), and daughter, Neely Anne (9), live in Tempe, Ariz.

Jim Shearer

Assistant Trainer

Jim Shearer enters his 17th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyo. as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyo., Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (12), and a daughter, Sarah (8). They reside in Tempe, Ariz.

Jeff Herndon

Assistant Trainer

Now in his fifth season on John Omohundro's Cardinal training staff, Jeff Herndon earned his master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Mo., the 29-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Tex. for one year before rejoining the Cardinals in 1988.

Herndon is single and resides in Phoenix.

Mark Ahlemeier

Equipment Manager

Mark Ahlemeier succeeded 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987 following six years as the club's assistant equipment manager.

Ahlemeier, 32, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

An avid golfer and sports enthusiast, Ahlemeier and his wife, Patti, have one daughter, Mandy (2). They reside in Tempe, Ariz.

Steve Christensen

Assistant Equipment Manager

Steve enters his third year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, aiding department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 31-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's move to Arizona.

An avid racquetball player and runner, Steve ran in the 1984 Phoenix Marathon. He and his wife, Lauri, reside in Chandler, Arizona.

Benny Greenberg

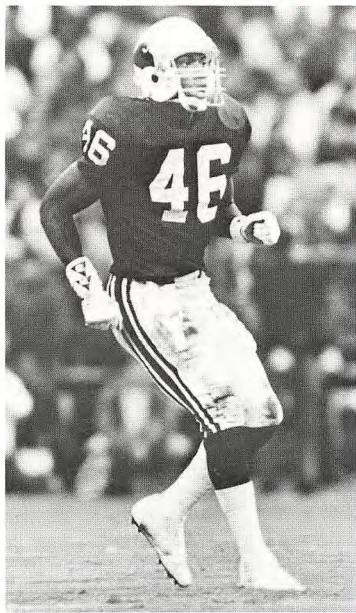

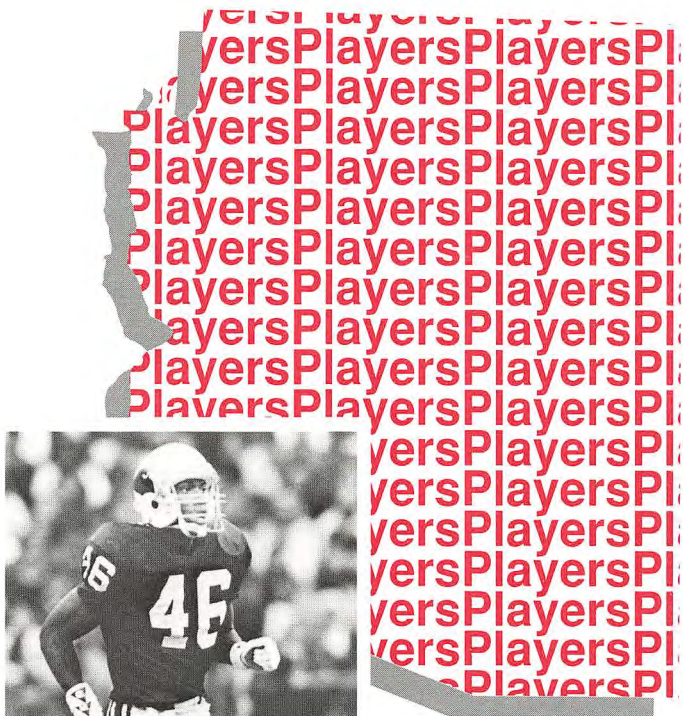

Video Director

Benny Greenberg begins his 25th year of affiliation with the Cardinals in 1990 as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona, Greenberg, 64, owned and operated photography stores until five years ago in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that includes videotaping games and all practices. He also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work with the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

Greenberg, who studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s, and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz. They have two sons—Mark (38) and Berry (36)—and two grandchildren.

6-5 • 248 • San Diego State • Fourth Year • Third Round, 1987

Pro Career: Entering his fourth year, has developed into one of the finest receiving talents at his position in the league ... his role in offense this year may be more diverse with potential influence of Washington Redskins' offense under new head coach Joe Bugel ... corralled nine passes for 97 yards and one touchdown in dynamite NFL debut at tight end vs. Philadelphia (Nov.

Son of U.S. Army officer, born in Landstuhl, West Germany, and moved to Sacramento, Calif. at age two.

1, 1987), then cruised to a total of 42 receptions for 526 yards and six scores to earn all-rookie acclaim ... his 42 receptions were most by any NFC rookie and second most by any NFL tight end (N.Y. Giants' Mark Bavaro, 55) in '87 ... that total also most by Cardinal tight end since Jackie Smith's 43 for 561 yards in 1969, and only one grab shy of club's all-time rookie mark of 43 by end Gern Nagler (43-610) in 1953 ... followed with 39 and 33 grabs the past two seasons, respectively, and his performance has been a barometer of the Cardinals' fortunes since.

1989: Finished fourth on team in receiving with 33 receptions, though production was lowest of his NFL career ... snared four aerials for 65 yards in opener vs. Detroit (Sept. 10), including key 19-yarder in fourth quarter to set up Cards' only touchdown of day in thrilling 16-13 triumph ... gathered in season-best six receptions for 105 yards in 24-20 win over Dallas (Nov. 12).

1988: Minor knee surgery in off-season failed to diminish his effectiveness as he hauled in 39 passes for 454 yards and four touchdowns ... ran string of consecutive starts catching a pass to 19 before being shut out vs. San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... suffered moderate ankle sprain during practice week of Rams' contest and was originally thought to be out of action, but managed to recover in time to snare key 27-yard grab in 41-27 victory (Oct. 2) ... though blanked in first half, pulled in three passes in fourth quarter vs. Dallas (Oct. 31) in 16-10 victory ... snared career-long 52-yard scoring toss from Cliff Stoudt vs. Houston (Nov. 20) ... piled up three or more catches eight times.

1987: Replacing injured Jay Novacek (fractured right elbow) at midseason, emerged as one of NFL's prize rookies ... reeled in several post-season honors, including The Sporting News' NFL rookie-of-the-year ... also named to all-pro second team by Newspaper Enterprise Association ... in addition, voted to every NFL all-rookie team (UPI, Pro Football

Twice tied Jackie Smith's club single-game record for tight ends with nine receptions against Philadelphia (Nov. 1) and Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) in 1987.

Weekly, PFWA, and Football Digest) ... his six touchdown receptions equalled Cards' single-season record for rookie, also set by Nagler in 1953 ... after his dramatic pro debut, returned the following week to post nine catches for 124 yards and one touchdown in 31-28 win vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) ... both nine-reception days tied club's modern-day record for tight end (held by Jackie Smith and Jay Novacek).

Al Del Greco

17 • Kicker

5-10 • 198 • Seventh Year • Auburn • Free Agent, 1987

Pro Career: Proven veteran kicker with estimable statistics ... former free agent who enjoyed record-setting three-plus seasons with Green Bay ... was released by Packers after brief slump midway through 1987 season, then joined Cardinals ... hopes to rebound from sub-par '88 campaign and tailspin at end of '89 campaign to once again handle Cards' kicking chores ... owns career field goal accuracy mark of .651 (84-129) with 190 of 196 PATs to his credit for 442 points. 1989: Connected on first three tries, then after missing a 47-yarder vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), booted next ten straight to tie club mark set by Jim Bakken (twice—1965-66, 1975) ... finished season converting 18 of 26 (69.2%) field goal tries and hit 28 of 29 PATs for 82 points ... that Converted 74 consecutive PATs while at Green Bay (1985-87), second longest streak in club history behind Paul Hornung's 96 straight. Interestingly, his streak began against the Cardinals in 1985 and ended in his first game as a Cardinal in 1987 vs. N.Y. Giants on Dec. 13.

accuracy mark of 69.2% was the club's second-best percentage in 15 years and fifth best in club single-season annals ... drilled field goals of 29, 23 and 33 yards in opener vs. Detroit (Sept. 10) to account for 10 of Cardinals 16 points, including game-winner from 33 yards out with just 13 seconds left in 16-13 victory ... powered through a 50-yard try vs. Atlanta (Oct. 22) for the second-longest in his career ... was perfect four-of-four from 40, 25, 31, and 42 yards in 19-10 triumph over Dallas (Oct. 29), the second four field goal day of his career (first as a Cardinal) and first by a Cardinal since Bakken turned the trick in 1975 ... converted attempts from 21 and 28 yards vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) but saw a hurried 47-yard try sail just wide left with six seconds left in 14-13 loss.

1988: His 12 FGs, 42 PATs and 78 points were all three club bests since Neil O'Donoghue's 23 FGs, 48 PATs and 117 points in 1984 ... after he missed first two attempts, connected on seven of next eight tries ... chalked up three FGs (47, 37, 23) in 30-24 triumph over Tampa Bay (Sept. 18) ... nailed career-long 51-yarder in 41-27 victory over L.A. Rams (Oct. 2) ... converted 24-yarder vs. San Francisco (Nov. 6) to bring club within 23-10, then hit game-winning PAT with :03 on clock in 24-23 comeback victory. 1987: Signed as free agent and connected on four of five FG attempts, and eight of nine PATs for 20 points in just three games ... missed PAT vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 13) to break string of 77 consecutive extra points ... hit all four PATs and 28-yard FG vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 20) ... nailed three more field goals in season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 27) ... released by Packers Nov. 7 after converting five of 10 field goals and all 11 PATs ... 74 consecutive conversions over three Packer seasons rank second in club annals behind Paul Hornung's 96 and surpassing Jan Stenerud's total of 67 ... had tryouts with New England and Detroit before joining Cards. 1986: Hit 17 of 27 field goals and was perfect on all 29 PATs for team-best 80 points, padding his total to 236 points, placing him 15th on Packers' all-time scoring list ... tied club single-game record with four field goals against Chicago (Sept. 22) in

Monday Night contest ... good on 12 of 14 field-goal tries inside 40 yards ... extended string of consecutive PATs to 63. 1985: Converted 19 of 26 field-goal attempts and 38 of 40 PATs for career-best 95 points, including solid 14 of 16 from inside 40 yards ... enjoyed memorable game vs. Detroit (Dec. 15) when he made all four field goals attempted, including 27-yarder as time expired in 26-23 Green Bay win ... also responded with game-winner on 22-yarder with seven seconds left in 20-17 victory over Minnesota (Oct. 13). 1984: Became Packers' kicker in game eight (replacing Eddie Garcia) after being contacted at Auburn campus where he was completing work on degree in business transportation ... hit on first field goal as professional vs. Seattle (Oct. 2) and went on to make nine in succession, finishing season nine of 12 ... biggest day as rookie came against New Orleans (Nov. 4), hitting three field goals and two PATs for 11 points in 23-13 win ... originally had tryout with Packers

Once made six field goals vs. Kentucky in 1982 as Auburn's place kicker.

Currently owns two handicap in golf with aspirations of becoming a teaching professional following his football career.

in May mini-camp but did not sign ... later inked contract with Miami and made four of six field goal tries during preseason but was released when Dolphins decided to retain Uwe von Schamann. College/Personal: Four-year place-kicking specialist at Auburn ... set school marks for career field goals (42), PAT conversions (110), single-

In past seven years, he's averaged 57 receptions, 831 yards, and 6 touchdowns per season.

four-game stretch in 1989, missed four-and-a-half games in 1987 with hamstringing problems, and was sidelined five contests in 1986 due to corrective surgery on left ankle to remove calcium deposits ... strung together back-to-back 78-catch seasons in 1983 and 1984, earning Pro Bowl honors both years ... those 78-grab campaigns were club single-season records until teammate J.T. Smith tallied 80 in 1986, 91 in 1987, and 83 last season ... rattled off 1,227 reception yards and 14 touchdowns in '83 with encore of 1,555 yards and 12 touchdowns in '84 ... has caught at least 40 passes in each of last seven seasons ... began NFL career as defensive back from 1979-81, making history in '81 vs. Washington (Sept. 20, 1981) when he became first player to catch touchdown pass and intercept pass in same game since Redskins' Eddie Sutton in 1957 ... tied NFL record with 106-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. Dallas (Oct. 21, 1979) as a rookie. 1989: Gathered in 44 passes for seven touchdowns and fine 16.0 average despite missing four games with broken clavicle ... his seven scoring grabs averaged 27.1 yards ... hauled in 35-yard strike from Gary Hogeboom to give Cards fourth-quarter lead in 16-13 win over Detroit in season opener (Sept. 10) ... burned the Kingdome turf for three touchdowns (51, 6 and 59 yards) on eight receptions for 166 yards in 34-24 win over Seattle (Sept. 17) ... sailed to second 59-yard scoring toss vs. San Diego (Oct. 1) ... snared eight passes for 116 yards vs. Washington (Dec. 3) ... ended trying season with scoring grabs from six and 36 yards in finale at Philadelphia (Dec. 24). 1988: Reestablished himself as one of the NFL's premier receivers in 1988 with a healthy and productive campaign, generating his best effort in four seasons ... cruised to third career 1,000-yard campaign ... led club with 1,097 yards receiving, a total that ranked fifth in NFC ... hauled in four passes for 119 yards in first half of 31-14 win over Pittsburgh (Oct. 9) ... caught nine-yard touchdown pass on slant from quarterback Neil Lomax with three seconds left in game to climax dramatic 21-point comeback win over eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... in that 24-23 victory, snared six passes for 93 yards and two scores ... yanked down nine passes for 176 yards in 24-17 win over N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13), including five for 126 yards in first half ... those nine receptions were his best since he was a two-way player in 1982 and the 176 yards his best effort in 46 contests ... caught at least four passes in 11 contests and five or more on eight occasions ... in Cards' four-game early-season winning streak, averaged impressive 25.8 yards-per-catch on 12 receptions. 1987: Averaged 17 yards per grab by catching 43 passes for 731 yards and four touchdowns in 12 games ... yardage mark ranked ninth among NFC receivers ... snared seven receptions for 112 yards in season finale at Dallas (Dec. 27) ... chased down seven passes for 139 yards at San Diego in week two (Sept. 20) ... also registered estimable performances vs. Redskins (6-90) and Cowboys (4-90, 2 TDs) at Busch Stadium. 1986: Underwent surgery Sept. 22 to remove calcium deposit in left ankle and remained on club's injured reserve list until Dallas contest (Oct. 24) ... despite missing five games, he flagged down 42 passes for 517 yards and six touchdowns ... caught touchdown pass in four of last five contests of season, including 48-yard strike from Lomax with 2:39 left in regulation at Philadelphia (Dec. 7) in eventual 10-10 overtime deadlock ... six catches for 100 yards in Eagles' clash marked 12th time he's pierced century yardage mark in his career ... did not catch a pass vs. New Orleans (Nov. 16), ending 74-game streak in which he'd caught at least one pass. 1985: Started just 13 games when severe toe injury, then an equally-debilitating ankle sprain in week eight, placed a damper on his productivity ... still managed to catch 50 passes for 693 yards and 5 touchdowns ... once injuries were behind him, finished final four games with 18 receptions, including seven vs. Dallas (Nov. 28) ... season-best 94 yards on six catches in 43-28 win vs. Green Bay (Sept. 29), including insurance points on 37-yard touchdown grab ... missed games in weeks nine to 11 with injury. 1984: Stamped his mark as one of most feared deep threats in NFL with 78 pass receptions for 1,555 yards and 12 touchdowns en route to second consecutive Pro Bowl berth ... averaged 45.3 yards per touchdown catch ... total of 78 catches tied own club mark set year before ... eclipsed 100-yard receiving mark six times and caught five or more passes nine times ... caught fourth quarter touchdown passes of 47 and 56 yards in 34-33 comeback win over Indianapolis (Sept. 16) ... pulled down third period scoring strikes of 70 and 45 yards in 31-20 win over Dallas (Oct. 7) ... piled up two more touchdowns on aerials of 38 and 83 yards in 26-24 comeback win over Washington (Oct. 21) ... in season finale, enjoyed career-best 196 yards on eight catches, including touchdown grabs of 75 and 18 yards vs. Redskins (Dec. 16). 1983: In his first 16-game season as a wide receiver, blossomed as Cardinals' all-time single-season record holder with 78 receptions for 1,227 yards ... caught five or more passes 10 times ... eye-opening four touchdown catches in 33-28 win over Seattle (Nov. 13) ... caught 26-yard game-winner with 29 seconds left vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 25) in 14-10 victory ... 14 touchdown catches were most by Cardinal since Randle set club record of 16 in 1960 ... season-best 133-yards on eight grabs vs. Washington (Nov. 6), and four vs. Seattle (Nov. 13), totalling seven in three-game stretch ... over final eight games of season, caught 35 passes for 629 yards, 17.9 average and 10 touchdowns. 1982: First season as full-time wide receiver ... ranked second on team with 32 pass receptions ... enjoyed career-best 10 receptions with 170 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 19) ... caught dramatic game-winning and playoff-clinching touchdown on eight-yard reception with 27 seconds showing on clock in 24-21 win over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) ... ran ball six times on reverses or fake punts ... caught nine passes for 113 yards in playoff loss to Green Bay (Jan. 8, 1983) ... also made five tackles on special teams coverage units. 1981: Turned in one of most unique, inimitable seasons in recent NFL history as first authentic two-way performer in league in more than two decades ... began year as fifth defensive back but when injuries depleted the receiving corps, he was inserted as surprise wide receiver vs. Dallas (Sept. 13) and promptly caught 60-yard touchdown pass on first play ... made headlines next week vs. Redskins when he became first player to catch touchdown pass and intercept pass in same game since Washington's Eddie Sutton performed feat in 1957 ... in that game, he was on field for total of 99 plays (offense, defense, four special teams) and caught four passes for 115 yards, including 58-yard touchdown on first play of game ... for year,

Watched his club single-season reception mark (78, 1983 & '84) broken by J.T. Smith in 1986-88.

His 1,555 receiving yards in 1984 was highest total by an NFL player in 19 years and still remains the fourth most yards in league history behind Charley Hennigan's 1,746 (1961), Lance Alworth's 1,602 (1965), and Jerry Rice's 1,570 (1986).

During sensational 1984 season, he averaged 45.3 yards per touchdown catch.

56 • Outside Linebacker

6-2 • 225 • Third Year • California • First Round, 1988

Pro Career: Possesses intriguing combination of strength and speed ... has pounded opponents for 13 sacks his first two pro seasons ... with another year of adjustment under his belt, could emerge as a true threat on defense in 1990 ... assumed

Before senior year in high school, dropped out of school and was working in a McDonald's franchise as a line cook. His current agent, Joe Martin, spotted him working out in an Austin, Tex. gym, made a call to the coach at Laney (Tex.) J.C., and the rest is history! While working in a lumber yard during the summer prior to attending Laney, Harvey's supervisor called Martin, saying he had a problem with the football player. "He told me he asked Ken to pick up some 2X4s. He meant with a hydraulic lift but Ken was hoisting 300 pounds of lumber himself."

58 • Middle Linebacker

6-1 • 248 • Second Year • Louisiana State • First Round, 1989

Pro Career: Lived up to his first-round draft billing in 1989 with a solid and productive rookie season in 1989 ... posted 91 tackles, one quarterback sack, recovered two fumbles and forced a third, and batted down one pass ... earned numerous all-rookie acclaim (UPI, College and Pro Football

All-Southeastern Conference and first-round selection by Cardinals in 1989 NFL draft.

Newsweek, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest) ... started 14 games at middle linebacker, missing one contest due to injury and playing in reserve role in opener vs. Detroit's run-n-shoot offense ... in first NFL game, credited with two tackles on kickoff coverage units (four overall) and forced fumble on kickoff return near end of game to seal Cardinals' 16-13 victory over Detroit (Sept. 10) ... in first NFL starting assignment, piled up four solo stops in 34-24 win over Seattle (Sept. 17) ... began to showcase his wares by third game of season with 14 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), including 10 solo stops ... credited with nine tackles each vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) and N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... suffered ankle sprain vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19) and sat out most of game, then was inactive vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) ... returned to lineup vs. Washington (Dec. 3) but left game early when he re-aggravated the right ankle ... despite the limiting injury, played entire game vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) and responded with eight tackles, while he also separated Raiders' quarterback Steve Beuerlein from ball on first NFL sack and made recovery to set up Cards' first touchdown.

College/Personal: First-team all-Southeastern Conference selection and honorable mention all-America as senior ... three-year starter LSU ... two-time all-Houston and all-District linebacker and tight end at Ball (Galveston, Tex.) High ... education major while at LSU ... born Nov. 14, 1966 ... single and resides in Tempe, Ariz.

Upon arriving in Phoenix, Hill was taken out to dinner by Cards' offensive lineman Lance Smith just as Smith had done in 1985 as LSU senior while recruiting Hill for LSU.

While linebacker and tight end at Ball High (Galveston, Texas), once registered six quarterback sacks, caused three fumbles and caught a touchdown pass in same game.

Dallas from 1980-85, threaded 17 of 31 passes for 164 yards to lead Cardinals to 19-10 triumph over Cowboys (Oct. 29) ... pulled in favor of Tom Tupa in return meeting vs. Dallas (Nov. 12) after he got up groggy in first half, then yielded to Tupa and, eventually, rookie Timm Rosenbach vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19) ... returned with vengeance to complete eight of 11 passes for 131 yards in solid first half vs. Washington (Dec. 3), but left game with dislocated index finger on throwing hand ... fired pair of scoring tosses to Green in finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24). 1988: Started season opener for Colts but was relegated to spot duty in eight other appearances ... connected on 15 of 20 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown in season opener vs. Houston but relinquished starting role to Trudeau and Chris Chandler for remainder of season as Colts utilized wishbone attack on occasion ... season stats included 78 completions, 131 attempts, 996 yards, 7 touchdowns, and 7 interceptions ... came off bench for injured Chandler to thread 15 of 32 passes for 202 yards vs. Buffalo (Oct. 9), including 39-yard scoring strike to Clarence Verdin ... again relieved Chandler vs. San Diego (Oct. 23), turning in 11-of-19 performance for 132 yards and 25-yard touchdown to Matt Bouza ... connected on one of two passes vs. Denver (Oct. 31), a 53-yard scoring strike from wishbone formation to Bill Brooks ... top relief effort against Buffalo (Dec. 18) when he engineered touchdown drives of 80 and 75 yards in last 5:32 of game to cap 17-14 win ... connected on 10 of 15 passes for 89 yards and pair of scores on the day ... lone rushing touchdown came against N.Y. Jets (Nov. 6). 1987: Suffered through injury-plagued season ... three injuries (thumb, cracked rib/punctured lung, dislocated right shoulder) limited him to six starting roles ... Colts were 4-2 in six games Hogeboom started ... suffered injury to thumb ligament during preseason vs. Houston (Aug. 29), punctured lung vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 11), and dislocated right shoulder vs. Houston (Nov. 29) ... connected on 17 of 25 passes for 259 yards and eye-popping five touchdowns in 47-6 win vs. Buffalo (Oct. 4) to tie club record for scoring strikes in game (Gary Cuozzo, Nov. 14, 1965) ... named AFC offensive player-of-the-week for his efforts vs. Bills ... returned from thumb injury in impressive style with 27-43-282 day vs. Miami (Sept. 20) ... led Colts to 40-21 triumph over Dolphins later in season (Nov. 15), hitting 22 of 37 tosses for 218 yards ... connected on scoring aeriels of 22 and 72 yards to Albert Bentley vs. Houston (Nov. 29) before season-ending thumb injury. 1986: Started first two contests and final three games of season ... spent 11 weeks on injured reserve list after shoulder separation vs. Miami (Sep. 14) ... guided club to trio of victories to close campaign ... in that 3-0 stretch, completed 61.9 percent of passes (57-92) for 725 yards and 5 touchdowns ... threaded 23 of 33 passes for 318 yards and two scores in 24-14 win over Buffalo (Dec. 14), also adding one touchdown rushing ... 8.01-yard average per attempt marked the first time since Bert Jones (9.05, 1978) that a Colts' quarterback exceeded an eight-yard seasonal average and ranked third among league signal-callers. 1985: Started two contests as backup to Danny White in Dallas ... completed 70 of 128 passes (54.7%) with five touchdowns ... connected on 15 of 25 attempts for 172 yards and one touchdown vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 20) ... authored career highs in attempts (49) and yards (389) in other start vs. San Francisco (Dec. 22) ... completed 17 of 24 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns in relief role vs. Detroit (Sept. 15), also scoring on two-yard run. 1984: In first pro start, threaded 33 of 47 attempts for 343 yards in 20-13 win over L.A. Rams (Sept. 3, 1984) ... led Dallas to 6-4 mark as starter for first 10 games of campaign before being benched in favor of White ... connected on 195 of 367 attempts for 2,388 yards and 7 touchdowns but also tossed 14 interceptions ... hit on season-best 68-yard scoring play vs. Chicago (Sept. 30) ... two touchdown passes vs. Cardinals (Nov. 11). 1983: Saw action in just six games as reserve ... completed 11 of 17 attempts for 151 yards. 1982: Played in just four games during regular season with three completions in eight attempts for 45 yards ... thrust into spotlight when he came off the bench for injured Danny White in NFC title game vs. Washington, connecting on 14 of 29 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns in defeat. 1981 & 1980: Played in one contest each year without attempting a pass. College/Personal: Two-year starter at Central Michigan who engineered 24 wins in 28 games, including 19-2-1 record in final two seasons ... named Mid-American Conference player-of-the-year in 1979 ... set school total offense mark of 4,045 yards with 3,088 yards passing and 957 rushing ... attended Northview High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan ... has worked extensively with Special Olympics and Wish with Wings causes ... born August 21, 1958 ... resides in Phoenix with wife, Kristi, and children Heidi Jo (Nov. 30, 1982), Jake (July 10, 1984)

Received NFL baptism by fire with first extensive action in 1982 NFC Championship Game vs. Washington, completing 14 of 29 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns in losing effort, subbing for injured Danny White.

5-10 • 177 • Fifth Year • Mesa (Colo.) College • Waivers (Indpls.), 1986

Pro Career: Has filled role for four seasons as extra wideout in Cards' passing game ... gained valuable experience each of last three seasons at receiver while providing solid special teams play ... possesses explosive burst off line of scrimmage. 1989: Posted career-best numbers as third/fourth wide receiver ... finished season with 13 receptions for team-high 20.8 average, including 77-yard scoring sprint vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 14) ... made spectacular 35-yard over-the-shoulder grab vs. San Diego

Began college career at Colorado as a starter in 1979, transferred to Galivan J.C. where he sat out the 1980 season and red-shirted in 1981, returned to Colorado in 1982 as a starting wingback, then transferred to Mesa College in 1984.

(Oct. 1) ... corralled three passes for 63 yards vs.

Washington (Oct. 8) ... saw ample playing time with two catches when Roy Green left game vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... scored first NFL touchdown when he turned simple hitch pattern into 77-yard touchdown sprint vs. Rams (Nov. 14) ... entered game vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) when Ernie Jones suffered collarbone injury, then caught one pass for 10 yards in starting role vs.

Well-traveled college career has been followed by NFL stops in Atlanta, Indianapolis, and now St. Louis-Phoenix.

Denver (Dec. 16) ... was inactive for season finale. 1988: Pencilled in as third receiver until rookie Ernie Jones stepped forward ... only reception was 10-yarder in 30-21 win over Washington (Sept. 25) ... came through with two tackles on kick coverage units vs. Pittsburgh (Oct. 9), and six solos for the year. 1987: Hauled in 11 catches for 132 yards in first extensive NFL action ... With Roy Green and Troy Johnson nursing injuries, given starting nod vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) and responded with four catches, including fourth quarter 23-yarder that fueled game-winning drive in 31-28 comeback miracle victory ... snared pair of passes in opener vs. Dallas (Sept. 13) and three more vs. San Diego (Sept. 20) as third wideout ... returned one kickoff 25 yards ... finished preseason with team-best 137 yards receiving (eight catches). 1986: Played in final 12 games of season ... saw only sporadic action as extra wide receiver and on kickoff units ... did fine job as "Hawk" or "Bullet" on kickoff coverage units ... credited with five solo stops on kickoff cover units and returned one kickoff for two yards ... originally 12th-round choice of Atlanta in 1984 draft ... arrived at Falcons' camp in 1985 but failed to make roster ... signed with Indianapolis as free agent in 1986 but spent most of time on injured reserve list before Cardinals' claimed him off waiver list. College/Personal: NAIA all-America wide receiver at Mesa College (Colo.) in 1984 ... boasted seven touchdowns of 50 yards or more as senior ... attended Northwestern High School in Miami, Fla ... born April 1, 1961 ... resides in Phoenix, with wife, Mary, and children Don, Jr. (Aug. 24, 1985) and Jessica Anne (Aug. 8, 1987).

Ernie Jones

85 • Wide Receiver

5-11 • 186 • Third Year • Indiana • Seventh Round, 1988

Pro Career: One of the most pleasant and productive surprises of the last two seasons ... rose from status as seventh-round draft choice to entrench himself as the club's third wideout behind incumbents Roy Green and J.T. Smith as rookie, then contributed as starter last year ... two-year career average-per-catch figure of 19.6 ... has shown ability to gain considerable yardage after the catch. 1989: Sailed to 838 receiving yards on 45 receptions last year in 10 starting roles—four for Green (clavicle) and six for Smith (ankle) ... his 19.6 average-per-catch mark ranked third in the NFC behind the Rams' Flipper Anderson (26.0) and Henry Ellard (19.7) ... in first NFL start, cruised to eight receptions for 114 yards vs.

Philadelphia (Oct. 15) in place of the injured Green ... was the man of the hour in 24-20 thriller over Dallas (Nov. 12) as he caught 38-yard touchdown pass from Tom Tupa with 6:25 left in game, then answered a 75-yard Dallas touchdown play with a 72-yard bomb from Tupa with 1:43 left ... caught just three passes in that game, but averaged 46.5 yards on the day ... snared four aeriels for 97 yards vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10), including 35-yard scoring pass after he was helped to sidelines from fierce hit earlier in the drive ... then sustained collarbone/shoulder injury that prevented him from play vs.

Indiana's first football all-America in 20 years was named Big Ten Conference most valuable player over such standouts as Lorenzo White (RB, Michigan State), Jamie Morris (RB, Michigan), and Chris Spielman (LB, Ohio State).

Denver (Dec. 16) ... returned in season-finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) to haul in five passes for 76 yards ... also saw duty as kickoff returner, with seven returns for 117 yards (17.7 avg.) and gained 18 yards on reverse vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5). 1988: Led club in average-per-catch with 21.6-yard figure on 23 receptions for 496 yards with 3 touchdowns ... set up game-winning score when he parlayed short crossing pattern into 42-yard gain, shedding three Dallas tacklers to place ball at three-yard line with 1:16 remaining in 16-10 road victory over Cowboys (Oct. 31) ... responded with four clutch grabs in final three minutes of 24-23 comeback win over San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... a 17-yarder set up his own five-yard touchdown catch, while receptions of 15 and 25 yards, the latter with six seconds left in the game, kept alive the game-winning scoring drive ... snared six passes for 166 yards vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10), including four in third-down situations and a 93-yard scoring toss from quarterback Neil Lomax ... seven of his receptions were good for 25 yards or more ... returned 11 kickoffs for 147 yards in midseason when Stump Mitchell suffered ankle injury and Vai Sikahema was on injured reserve list.

College/Personal: Snared 126 passes for 2,211 yards (17.5-yard average) with 19 touchdowns at Indiana ... all-America pick and Big Ten Conference most valuable player as senior ...

Caught Neil Lomax's last touchdown pass, a 93-yarder vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 10, 1988, the fifth-longest pass play in franchise history and longest scoring connection since 1958.

all-conference, all-city and all-Indiana pick as senior receiver at Elkhart Memorial High School ... also played running back and defensive back ... all-Indiana pick in basketball, averaging 24 points per game ... criminal justice major ... born Dec. 15, 1964 ... single ... resides in Tempe, Ariz.

6-2 • 207 • Fourth Year • Southern California • Second Round, 1987

Pro Career: Emerged from shadow of Leonard Smith (traded to Buffalo) after serving three-game apprenticeship as rookie in 1987 to earn Pro Bowl acclaim last year ... became only third Cardinal defensive back since 1970 to earn Pro Bowl recognition (current general manager Larry Wilson, 1962-63, '65-'70 and Roger Wehrli, 1970-71, '74-77, '79) ... characterized by sure tackling, intelligence and toughness ... seven interceptions in 1989 are most by Cardinal in six years ... assumed signal-calling duties on defense with departure of E.J. Junior. 1989: Stole the show in just his second season as starter ... led club in tackles for second consecutive year with 155 (102 solo), gathered in seven interceptions, and batted away 16 passes, an impressive figure for a player at his position ... his Football was his no. 3 sport entering his senior year at Fresno, California's Edison High School, taking a back seat to basketball (13.5-point average at point guard) and baseball (.465 batting average as an outfielder).

170 return yardage total with those thefts led the conference, ranks fifth in team annals and was most by Cardinal since Norm Thompson's 190 on six steals in 1974 ... the seven interceptions were most since Lionel Washington corralled eight in 1983 ... made two interceptions in back-to-back games vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and Dallas (Nov. 12) ... led club with eight stops in 16-13 opening-day win over Detroit (Sept. 10) ... cruised to 12 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), then suffered ankle injury vs. San Diego (Oct. 1) that hampered his production somewhat ... in games 7-10, however, kicked into high gear with nine solo stops, three passes defended and key fumble recovery that set up Cards' touchdown in 34-20 win over Atlanta; six tackles, interception and another trio of passes defended in 19-10 win over Dallas (Oct. 29); then 10 solo hits and two thefts vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and two more steals in 24-20 win over the Cowboys (Nov. 12) ... his performance in that second Dallas contest earned him NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors as he returned one of the interceptions 53 yards for a touchdown ... posted incredible 15 solo tackles vs. Washington (Dec. 3) as he (16 total stops) and LB Ken Harvey (14 solos) accounted for nearly half (30) of the tackles on Redskins' offensive plays (66) ... chalked up 10 tackles vs. Raiders (Dec. 10) and did fine job at run support as L.A. averaged just 4.5 yards-per-attempt and though Bo Jackson gained 114 yards, nearly half came on a 50-yard sprint ... combined for 13 tackles in final two games. 1988: Generated impressive 1988 campaign with team-best 115 tackles, including seven or more on nine occasions ... after appearing in just three games the previous year, posted all-pro-like numbers in what could be considered his rookie season with 101 solo stops, 14 assists, 2 quarterback sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, 2 interceptions, and 8 passes defended ... those totals exceeded Smith's team-high totals (109 stops) of a year earlier ... started at free safety vs. Dallas (Sept. 12) and Tampa Bay (Sept. 18) when Lonnie Young temporarily replaced Cedric Mack at cornerback ... piled up combined 16 tackles the next two weeks as starter at strong safety ... key performer with 11 tackles, quarterback sack, and forced fumble in 30-21 win over Washington (Oct. 16), then corralled 11 more in 16-10 win over Dallas (Oct. 31) and 11 overall in 24-23 comeback against San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... career and season-best 12 solo stops vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4), including sack and forced fumble ...

Turned "hat trick" in 1988 on special teams by deflecting punt, field goal, and point after touchdown.

also excelled on special teams, blocking field goal and PAT and deflecting punt ... showed evidence of caliber as both player and individual when, despite 44-7 deficit and game in waning moments, blocked PAT vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4) ... came through with blocked field goal in 31-14 win over Pittsburgh (Oct. 9), and deflected punt vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 27). 1987: Suffered fracture of left ankle in preseason vs. Chicago (Aug. 31) and anguished on injured reserve list for all but last three games of season. College/Personal: Reeled off 325 tackles and 11 interceptions as three-year starter at Southern California ... consensus all-America selection and latest in long line of Trojan all-America safeties ... finalist as senior for Jim Thorpe Award presented to top collegiate defensive back in country ... named defensive player-of-the-game in 1987 East-West Shrine Game ... voted prep all-America, all-California, all-Northern California, all-metro and league most valuable player at Edison High School, Fresno, Calif., at both safety and quarterback ... as prep senior, completed 194 of 341 passes (56.9 percent) for 2,739 yards and 30 touchdowns and rushed for 400 yards and six touchdowns, while on defense amassing 5 interceptions, 123 tackles, and averaging better than 41 yards as punter ... also handled kickoffs ... business administration major at USC ... born Jan. 6, 1965 ... exceptional speed for size.

1989: Battled through four-game suspension to contribute 34 tackles, five quarterback sacks and one fumble recovery in 12 games ... other than the suspension, has not missed a starting assignment in his entire 72-game NFL career ... opened season in fine form with six solo stops in 16-13 win over Detroit (Sept. 10)... credited with season-high seven combined tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), then added five solo stops and sack in return match with Giants (Nov. 5), including fumble recovery that led to Cardinals' field goal in third quarter... rang up pair of sacks vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) along with four solo tackles ... showcased his talents with four tackles and sack in each of games against L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) and Denver (Dec. 16) ... handed 30-day suspension effective Sept. 26 for violation of league's substance abuse policy, reinstated Oct. 24

1988: Stamped himself as one of the NFL's premier pass-rushing talents with 14 sacks, a total surpassed only by Philadelphia all-pro Reggie White (16.5) among NFL linemen ... that mark also was most by a Cardinal since Curtis Greer's 14 (1984) and just two shy of Greer's team record of 16 (1983) ... menaced opposing quarterbacks as effectively as any pass rusher in the league ... led Cards in sacks, quarterback hurries (27), and played every down from scrimmage on defense ... named all-pro honorable mention by Associated Press and second team all-NFC by UPI ... combined with Rod Saddler to force Rams' Jim Everett into

Pro Career: One of Cardinals' Cinderella stories of recent years ... 10th-round draft choice, was regarded as long shot to survive training camp in 1986 ... instead, he's set numerous club punt return records en route to back-to-back Pro Bowl selections in '86-'87 ... four-game hiatus on injured reserve with knee injury in 1988 prevented him from becoming first player in NFL history to lead league in punt return yardage three successive seasons ... earned all-pro accolades by Associated Press in both 1987 (first team) and 1986 (second team) ... has vaulted into first place on Cards' career punt return chart for both yardage (1,846) and returns (157), surpassing Stump Mitchell's previous marks (156-1,377) ... jumped into second place on club's all-time kickoff return list with 137 career returns, 40 behind all-time leader Stump Mitchell (177), while his kickoff return yardage mark

Established club single-season punt return records in his first two NFL seasons, earning Pro Bowl notice in both 1986 and '87.

(2,957) also ranks second to Mitchell's all-time club total (4,007) ... shares club's career record of three punt returns for touchdowns with Ollie Matson (1954-55) ... 11.8-yard career punt return average ranks third in Cardinal logs to Charley Trippi's 13.7-yard figure (63-864, 1947-55) and Willard Harrell's mark of 12.0 yards per return (71-854, 1978-84). 1989: Authored his most productive season in four years with 1,697 combined yards (145 rushing/245 receiving/433 punt returns/874 kickoff returns) ... enjoyed success as third-down specialist out of the backfield ... made surprise entry into backfield due to injuries vs. Washington (Oct. 8) and chalked up 55 quick yards on 28-yard run and pass reception for 27 more yards ... also added 17-yard reception vs. Philadelphia (Oct., 15) and 23-yard grab vs. Atlanta (Oct. 22) ... saw substantial action vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) with 42 yards rushing on eight attempts and 34 yards on a pair of pass catches ... gathered in five passes for 37 yards in starting role vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19), then added 37-yards on single catch vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) ... showed glimpses of his former Pro Bowl kick return form throughout the year ... ended season ranked third in conference and fourth in NFL punt return average ... returned six punts for 84 yards (14-yard average) vs. San Diego (Oct. 1) and two punts for 62 yards vs. Washington (Oct. 8), including a season-long of 53 yards ... ripped off 52-yard kickoff return to set up key fourth-quarter score in 34-20

Claimed NFC punt return crown (12.1) as rookie while his 12.5-yard average in 1987 was best mark by Cardinal player since Terry Metcalf's 13.1 mark in 1974.

win over Atlanta (Oct. 22). 1988: Partial tear of medial collateral ligament in left knee suffered in second quarter vs. Dallas (Oct. 30) relegated him to injured reserve list for four weeks ... prior to injury, tied for second in league with 267 punt return yards, while 10.3-yard average ranked second in conference ... finished season with 10.3-

6-2 • 185 • Thirteenth Year • North Texas State • Free Agent, Sept. 17, 1985

Pro Career: Received new lease on his football life with Cardinals in 1985 when he signed as free agent to become perhaps the premier possession receiver in the game today ... rebounding from serious leg injury that prematurely ended his 1989 campaign ... logged seven previous NFL seasons with Kansas City ... caught only 25 passes in final three years with Chiefs (1982-84) but has corralled 359 passes in five seasons since as Cardinal ... has grabbed more passes (316 receptions, 3,895 yards, 24 touchdowns) during past three years than any other NFL player, an average of 79 passes and 974 yards per season over that span ... 91 catches in 1987 and 83 last season surpassed own club record of 80 set in 1986 ... joins Washington's Art Monk, N.Y. Jets' Al Toon and Green Bay's Sterling Sharpe as only NFL wide receivers to reach 90-reception plateau in single season since 1964 ...

Caught only 25 passes with Kansas City from 1982-84 but has responded with 297 receptions in last four seasons with Cardinals.

settled for Pro Bowl alternate status in 1986-87 but played in the 1988 classic when San Francisco's Jerry Rice withdrew due to ankle injury ... has punctured the 6,000-yard barrier, currently with 6,574 yards in his 12-year career ... although special team days may be over, ranks third in NFL career punt return yardage with 2,730, trailing only Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (3,317) and Rick Upchurch (3,008) ... lodged in second place for NFL career punt returns (264) behind only Johnson (282) ... still holds Kansas City's marks for career and single-season in punt returns (220, 58 in 1979) and punt return yards (2,322, 612 in '79). 1989: Though an injury limited him to only nine games, still finished season as club's leading pass receiver with 62 receptions, and average of 6.9 grabs per game ... at that sizzling pace barring the injury, he would have totalled 110 receptions - a new all-time NFL record ... those 62 receptions were good enough to place his name in the top ten receiving seasons in club history for the fourth time ... peppered Lions for 10 receptions and 121 yards in 16-13 win over Detroit (Sept. 10), including four third-down catches for first down yardage ... amassed 104 yards on seven grabs along with 25-yard touchdown pass in 34-24 victory over Seattle (Sept. 17), then added eight for 87 yards and another score vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24) ... equalled career-best with 11 pass receptions for season-high 123 yards vs. San Diego (Oct. 1), then hit century mark again vs. Washington (Oct. 8) with seven aerials for 114 yards ... snared six passes for 65 yards in first half of 34-20 win over Atlanta (Oct. 22) despite a very restrictive glove to protect a broken right hand ... season ended when he suffered high fracture of fibula in right leg and severe ankle sprain vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... spent final seven weeks of season in injured reserve list. 1988: Finally granted just due with long-awaited and deserved spot in the Pro Bowl ... 83 grabs ranked third in NFC ... 986 yards fell just 14 yards short of a third consecutive 1,000-yard season ... enjoyed an outstanding eight-game span of production during weeks seven through 14,

Has caught more passes (316) during past three seasons than any other NFL player. Jets' Al Toon is second with 309.

His league-high and club-record 91 catches in 1987 elevates him with Washington's Art Monk, Green Bay's Sterling Sharpe, and the Jets' Al Toon as the only NFL wide receivers to catch at least 90 passes in a season since 1964.

bruise to break streak of 47 straight games catching at least one pass ... yanked down eight balls for 80 yards in 31-14 victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 9) along with first two scores of season ... spent Saturday prior to game against San Francisco (Nov. 6) in bed with flu bug but answered the bell on Sunday with six grabs for 84 yards in 24-23 comeback win over 49ers ... hauled down 10 passes for 114 yards vs. Houston (Nov. 20), including eight for 84 yards in second half ... snared scoring pass from quarterback Neil Lomax vs. Cleveland (Oct. 23), the first touchdown pass allowed by Browns' defense in 33 quarters ... after Pro Bowl return specialist Vai Sikahema suffered knee injury, handled punt return duty with seven returns for 67 yards. 1987: Led league in both receptions (91) and receiving yardage (1,117) ... 1,117 receiving yards rank fifth on Cards' single-season list ... capped brilliant season by hauling in career-best 11 passes for 102 yards and one touchdown at Dallas (Dec. 27) ... only Sonny Randle (16 at N.Y. Giants, 1962) and Ottis Anderson (12 at Washington, 1984) have caught more passes in Cardinal uniform in one game ... surpassed 100-yard mark four times during season ... besides the season finale at Dallas, also nabbed six passes for 116 yards at Washington (Oct. 4), 10 for 112 vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 1), and 10 for 109 at Atlanta (Nov. 29) ... tracked down pair of touchdown passes against both Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) and Philadelphia (Nov. 22) ... caught at least four passes in 12 of 15 games and 26 of last 31 contests dating back to 1986 ... many honors flowed his way, including The Sporting News' all-pro team, Pro Football Weekly's all-NFL team, UPI's all-NFC first team, and Associated Press' all-pro second team. 1986: 80 receptions eclipsed teammate Roy Green's 78-catch seasons of 1983 and '84 ... figure also ranked third among NFC receivers while his yardage tied Sonny Randle (1963) for sixth place on club's all-time single-season list ... set Cardinals' single-season reception record with 80 catches for 1,014 yards and six touchdowns, achieving that milestone despite suffering through such physical ailments as strained back, pulled hamstring, sprained ankle, and flu (twice) ... finished with surge, corralling 50 passes for 649 yards and five touchdowns in his last eight contests (including three 100-plus-yard games) to lead NFL during that period ... hunted down career-best 10 catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns at San Francisco (Nov. 9) with seven of those receptions going for first downs ... also clawed 10 passes for 131 yards at Philadelphia (Dec. 7), eight for 106 vs. New Orleans (Nov. 16) and five for 65 and two touchdowns vs. his former team, Kansas City (Nov. 23) ... caught four passes or more in 14 of Cardinals' 16 games ... his consistency was remarkable, considering he played with several injuries and was double-teamed while Roy Green was sidelined for five games. 1985: Joined club in week three and made immediate impact ... ranked second in NFC in punt returns with 10.9-yard average ... caught 43 passes for 481 yards, his best totals since all-pro 1981 season with Kansas City Chiefs ... stepped in at both wide receiver for injured Roy Green and Pat Tilley and as punt returner when Stump Mitchell replaced the injured Ottis Anderson in the starting backfield ... in first of five starting roles, snared six passes for 86 yards and gathering in 51 passes for 495 yards and all five of his touchdowns ... sat out second half of 30-21 win over Washington (Sept. 25) with shoulder

1989 Review

Nineteen eighty-nine, the Cardinals' second season in Arizona, will be remembered for controversy, injuries and attrition, a mid-season coaching change, and a disappointing 5-11 record.

Solid Start, Then ...

The Cardinals broke from the gate with one of their most promising starts in recent seasons. Saddled with three consecutive road games to open the season, the Cardinals managed campaign-opening victories at Detroit and Seattle, the first time they had prevailed in their first two road games during a non-strike season since 1974 and their first 2-0 all-games getaway since 1985.

The team's highly publicized rash of injuries did not deter the Cards from a respectable 5-5 record with six games remaining. After losing four straight on the heels of its two opening victories, the Cardinals rebounded with three victories in a four-week span. But following a one-sided 37-14 week 11 loss to the Rams at Anaheim to fall to 5-6, the Cardinals entered a week of turmoil when Head Coach Gene Stallings was replaced by running backs coach Hank Kuhlmann following Stallings' announcement he would not seek to have his contract renewed at the end of the season.

Under Kuhlmann, the Cards experienced two near-misses in five consecutive losses to end the season with the six-game losing streak, equalling their worst finish since 1965 when they also dropped their final six assignments.

Injuries and Attrition

Ominous signs appeared early!

The season-long injury bugaboo reared its ugly head during training camp when two-time Pro Bowl quarterback Neil Lomax and his 22,771 career passing yards were forced to the sidelines for the entire season due to a career-ending arthritic condition in his left hip. Veteran offensive guard Joe Bostic also was lost for the season due to a preseason knee injury.

A trend was soon to follow. Free safety Lonnie Young (47 tackles, 1 int.), right offensive tackle Tootie Robbins, and defensive end David Galloway (46 tackles, 5.5 sacks) were first, fracturing a shoulder, injuring a knee, and breaking a thumb, respectively, in the season opener at Detroit. The trio of stalwarts missed a total of 14 games. Running back Stump Mitchell (165 yards, 43 att.) was lost for the remainder of the season at New Jersey against the Giants during week three action after a serious knee injury spelled reconstructive surgery. Ditto defensive tackle Bob Clasby (9 tackles, 2 sacks) the following week ... similar injury, same result.

The Cardinals' dangerous pair of record-setting wide receivers, Roy Green (44 rec., 703 yards, 7 TDs) and J.T. Smith (62 rec., 778 yards, 5 TDs), appeared as a tandem for only the season's first five weeks. Green fractured a collarbone at Washington on October 8 and missed four weeks. The week before he returned, Smith, Durable guard Lance Smith was the only member of the Cardinals' offense to start all 16 games in 1989.

(120 tackles, team-leading 7 sacks), cornerback Cedric Mack (58 tackles, 1 sack, 4 int.), and Pro Bowl strong safety Tim McDonald (team leader with 155 tackles and 7 pass interceptions) on defense. The Cardinals played weeks eight and nine without a defensive tackle, opting for four defensive ends at the four down linemen positions. Promising rookie offensive lineman Joe Wolf was bounced from pillar to post, starting 15 of 16 games at both tackles and left guard. Five rookies—Wolf, offensive guard Mike Zandofsky, middle linebacker Eric Hill (91 tackles, 1 sack), defensive tackle Jim Wahler (37 tackles, 1 sack, 1 int.), and quarterback Timm Rosenbach (9 comp., 22 att., 95 yards, 0 TDs, 1 int.)—started against Denver on December 17, the most first-year Cardinal starters since November 15, 1981.

Offense

The patchwork Cardinal offense struggled. Philadelphia held the Phoenix offense without a touchdown on October 15 in the Eagles' 17-5 victory. On December 16, Denver's 37-0 victory was the first blanking of the Cardinals since November 10, 1985. The rushing attack failed to gain 100 yards in 11 games and did not field one 100-yard rusher for the first time since 1974 and only the second time since 1960.

who was leading the National Football League with 62 receptions, suffered a season-ending leg and ankle injury against the Giants at Sun Devil Stadium.

Starting quarterback Gary Hogeboom (204 comp., 364 att., 2,591 yards, 14 TDs, 19 int.) missed the October 15 Philadelphia game when arthritis flared in his right (throwing) elbow.

Pro Bowl offensive left tackle Luis Sharpe's string of 110 consecutive starts was snapped when a knee injury sidelined him for two mid-season contests.

The trend snowballed until 21 players (excluding Lomax) who started at least one game in 1989 also missed at least one contest, mostly due to injury.

The unprecedented attrition prompted unusual situations. Only four Cardinals started all 16 games—guard Lance Smith on offense and linebacker Ken Harvey

Quarterbacks ... First-year Cardinal Hogeboom, one of the highest-profile "Plan B" free agents to change teams during the off-season, earned the starting quarterback position by the end of the preseason, relegating second-year signal-caller Tom Tupa (65 comp., 134 att., 973 yards, 3 TDs, 9 int.) and rookie and first-round 1989 supplemental draft choice Rosenbach to understudy status.

Hogeboom posted a solid season with its normal share of ups and downs but hindsight indicates he enjoyed his finest professional season, posting career bests in yards passing (2,591), completions (204), and touchdown passes (14). He also threw a career-high in interceptions (19).

After throwing for 264 yards and one touchdown in the season-opening victory at Detroit, the former Colt and Cowboy completed 18 of 24 pass attempts the next Sunday in the Kingdome for 298 yards and four touchdowns.

The following Sunday against the Giants, however, four of Hogeboom's first eight passes were intercepted, his career single-game high.

Tupa made his first career start in his third career appearance and first of the season at home against the Eagles on October 15 with Hogeboom sidelined. It was a nightmarish day for the former Ohio State star. Although the Cardinals led 5-0 at halftime, Tupa threw six interceptions, four in the second half, and completed only 16 of 41 passes.

Four weeks later, however, Tupa turned rags to riches when he triggered the Cards' storybook comeback against Dallas at Sun Devil Stadium. Trailing 13-7 at intermission, the Cardinals went to Tupa in the second half and he rallied Phoenix to a palpitating 24-20 comeback victory. He completed 14 of 22 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns—long scoring strikes of 38 and 72 yards to wide receiver Ernie Jones (45 rec., 838 yards, 3 TDs). The latter was the most dramatic, occurring just four plays after the Cowboys apparently had sprung an upset with heroics of their own on a 75-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Troy Aikman to wide receiver James Dixon with just 1:43 remaining to play.

Tupa also started against the Buccaneers on Thanksgiving weekend.

Rosenbach, who missed training camp during contract negotiations, was limited to two late-season appearances, including a start against Denver on December 16 in the Cards' home finale. Rosenbach received his first taste of the NFL at Anaheim against the Rams on November 19, directing the Cardinals' final three drives in the fourth quarter. In his start, he quarterbacked the first six Cardinal series.

Running Backs ... Once Mitchell was lost, the Cardinal running backs situation became very unsettled. Mitchell's replacements—Tony Jordan (211 yards, 83 att., 2 TDs), Vai Sihakema (145 yards, 38 att.), and Tony Baker (31 yards, 20 att.)—combined for only 387 yards on 141 carries, a 2.74-yard average per rush. Without Mitchell, the Cardinals utilized their one-back set with fullback Earl Ferrell (502 yards, 149 att., 6 TDs) more often. The experimentation also inserted Sihakema, normally a punt and kick return specialist, into the offense. He logged his first two career starts weeks 11 (Rams) and 16 (Eagles) and notched his first rushing attempts since his rookie year of 1986. The running backs' complement, Ferrell, remained in the lineup but mustered his lowest rushing total in four years, 422 yards below his 1988 output. Ironically, Ferrell plowed for three rushing touchdowns against Atlanta on October 22, his career single-game high. Ron Wolfley (36 yards, 13 att., 1 TD) added a fourth the same day, his first touchdown since December 13, 1987 versus the Giants and the first time the Cardinals had posted four six-pointers on the ground since 1984.

Receivers ... The absence of Green or Smith for most of the season gave Jones his opportunity to start. He responded by leading the team in average yards per catch (18.6) for the second consecutive season in 10 starts. He also ranked third in the NFC behind the Rams' Flipper Anderson (26.0) and Henry Ellard (19.7). Despite being limited by injuries, Green and Smith still added to their lengthy lists of accomplishments. In the season finale at Philadelphia, Green caught two touchdown passes, the 61st and 62nd of his career, to pass Sonny Randle (1959-66) for the all-time franchise lead in that category. Smith, who ranked 14th in the NFC and 25th in the NFL in receptions and 15th in the NFC and 26th in the NFL in reception yardage despite missing the season's final seven outings, still managed to lead the Cardinals in receptions. At the time of his injury, he was leading the entire NFL in catches and was flirting with a pace to better not only his own 1987 club record of 91 receptions but also the league's single-season reception record of 106 (Washington's Art Monk, 1984). Smith now boasts four of the top 10 single-season reception totals in team history. Speedy reserve Don Holmes (13 rec., 271 yards, 1 TD) posted the season's longest play, a 77-yard touchdown reception from Tupa against the Rams on November 19. Among the tight ends, incumbent Rob Awalt (33 rec., 360 yards) was the starter, Jay Novacek (23 rec., 225 yards, 1 TD) was deployed primarily as a swingman in passing situations, and rookie Walter Reeves (1 rec.) was utilized as a blocker.

Offensive Line ... The Cardinals' offensive line, with five returning veterans, including Pro Bowler Sharpe, figured to be one of the team's anchors when the season began. Instead, it was a season in flux for the unit. Sharpe and Robbins were idled by injuries for nine games. Center Derek Kennard missed two outings on the "non-football illness" list. Left guard Todd Peat started the first four games before being waived. Right guard Smith turned out to be the bellwether. The circumstances provided Wolf and Zandofsky early opportunities to play. Wolf started 15 times, Zandofsky six.

Defense

The traditionally offensive-minded Cardinals discovered their future on the other side of the line of scrimmage when a young defense flashed promise throughout the season. After limiting Detroit's pass-happy "run-'n'-shoot" offense to seven completions in 20 pass attempts for 116 yards in the season opener, the Phoenix defenders fought through their share of the team's injuries to feature a promising linebacking corps featuring three former first-round draft choices, the unexpected contributions of a rookie tackle, and the emergence of a Pro Bowl strong safety to lead the unit.

Defensive Line ... Perhaps the most injury-riddled unit on an injury-plagued team, injuries and end Freddie Joe Nunn's 30-day absence for violation of the NFL's substance abuse policy forced the Cardinals to use 10 different defensive line combinations, including five different configurations in as many weeks to start the season. Regular defensive ends Nunn (34 tackles, 5 sacks) and David Galloway (46 tackles, 5.5 sacks) started only five times together. Karl Wilson (26 tackles, 1 sack) made six starts as their replacement. The tackle positions were revolving doors listing Wahler, Clasby, Gary Hadd (12 tackles and two knee injuries), Shawn Knight (7 tackles and a dislocated shoulder), and versatile Rod Saddler (50 tackles, 3.5 sacks) as starters over the course of the season. Saddler proved to be a most valuable player. After missing the opener following training camp arthroscopic knee surgery, he started the remaining 15 games (right end twice, left end three times, left tackle 10 times). Hadd was a preseason "Plan B" free agent signee; Knight, Wilson, and non-starter Bob Buczkowski (2 tackles) were signed as free agents during the season to fill the depleted ranks.

Linebackers ... Smiles crease Cardinal faces when the subject turns to the team's suddenly imposing linebacking corps of Anthony Bell (115 tackles, 2 sacks) and Harvey on the outside and Eric Hill (91 tackles, 1 sack) in the middle. The trio of former first-round draft choices finished two (Harvey)-three (Bell)-four (Hill) in individual tackles for the season. Harvey often took the look of a budding star, finishing with career highs in tackles and sacks in his first season as a starter. He eclipsed the 10-solo tackle plateau five times and finished with a flurry, amassing 42 tackles, 7 assists, and 2 sacks in four December games. Bell's tackle total plus eight passes defensed were career bests and his improved play prompted utilization as a linebacker in the Cards' "nickel package," freeing Harvey for pass-rushing duty. Hill surpassed the tackle totals of Bell, Harvey, and Nunn, initially a first-round draft choice at linebacker, in their first years as regulars.

Secondary ... Strong safety McDonald stole the show and emerged as an NFL star in his second season as a starter en route to his first Pro Bowl selection. Besides leading the Cardinals in tackles for the second consecutive year, he was among the league interception leaders for most of the season. His seven interceptions were the most by a Strong safety Tim McDonald earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 1989 by leading the Cardinals in tackles for the second consecutive season.

Cardinal since Lionel Washington grabbed eight in 1983. His 170 interception return yards were the most by a Cardinal since 1974 and rank fifth in team annals. The former Southern California all-America made two interceptions in back-to-back November home games against the Giants and Cowboys. He also rates as one of the game's surest tacklers. Young and Michael Zordich (60 tackles, 1 sack, 1 int. for a touchdown) capably complemented McDonald at free safety. Cornerbacks Mack and Carl Carter (63 tackles, 1 int.) enjoyed solid seasons. McDonald and Mack started all 16 games, Carter 15 times.

Special Teams

The most heartening facet of the 1989 Phoenix season was the play of its special teams that included the NFL's leading punter, a solid campaign from its place kicker, more records for its punt and kickoff returner, another outstanding autumn from Wolfley who earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl nod as a special teamer, and an influx of "Plan B" free agents who made weekly contributions.

Punting ... Rich Camarillo (76 punts, league-leading 43.3-yard average, 37.5-yard net average, 21 inside the 20), in his first season as a Cardinal, earned his second Pro Bowl berth by bettering Detroit's Jim Arnold by three-tenths of a yard per boot to lead the NFL in overall punting average. Camarillo finished second to the Giants' Sean Landeta by a margin of 37.8 to 37.5 yards in net average. Signed as a free agent during the off-season following eight seasons with New England (1981-87) and the L.A. Rams (1988), Camarillo enjoyed his finest season since his Pro Bowl year of 1983 when he led the NFL with a 37.1-yard net average and was second overall at 44.6 yards per boot. Camarillo's 43.4-yard average ranks as the fifth best single-season mean in franchise history behind Jerry Norton's three best seasons (45.6 in 1960, 44.9 in '59, and 44.7 in '61) and Carl Birdsong's 43.8-yard average in 1982.

Place Kicking ... Kicker Al Del Greco (28-29 PAT, 18-26 FG) posted a field-goal accuracy figure of 69.2 percent, the Cardinals' second best percentage in 15 years and fifth best in club single-season annals. The former Green Bay Packer booted 10 consecutive field goals, equalling Jim Bakken's franchise record. Del Greco also posted a four-field goal outing at Dallas, the second of his career, his first as a Cardinal, and the first by a Cardinal since Bakken turned the trick on September 19, 1975. Against Atlanta he boomed a 50-yard three-pointer, the second-longest field goal of his career. In the Detroit opener, he kicked three field goals, including the game-winner with 13 seconds remaining.

Returns ... Return specialist Sikahema amassed 1,307 combined kick return yards (433 punt returns, 874 kickoff returns), the fifth highest total in team history. Sikahema's 157 career punt returns surpassed teammate Mitchell's total of 156 to become the all-time club leader in that category. The former Brigham Young star also returned 43 kickoffs in 1989, his career high and the third highest total in club record books. Sikahema already holds club records for career punt return yardage (1,846), single-season punt returns (44, 1987), single-season punt return yardage (550, 1987), and single-game punt return yardage (145 vs. Tampa Bay, December 21, 1986). At Washington on October 8, he returned a punt 53 yards, his longest since a 76-yard touchdown sprint in 1987. He made only 13 fair catches.

1 Cardinals 16, Lions 13 September 10 Silverdome • 36,735

The Cards captured their regular-season opener at Detroit when kicker Al Del Greco booted his third field goal of the contest from 33 yards out with 13 seconds remaining to break a 13-13 tie. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom's route-going regular-season debut was a rousing success. He completed 21 of 35 passes for 264 yards and 1 touchdown, a 15-yarder to wide receiver Roy Green. Hogeboom was intercepted once. The Cardinals limited Detroit's innovative "run-n-shoot" offense to seven completions in 20 attempts for 116 yards. The Lions' rushing attack outgained their highly-publicized aerial game 159 to 116 yards. The Cards' 12-year veteran wide receiver J.T. Smith enjoyed one of the best statistical outings of his career, grabbing 10 passes for 121 yards to crack the 6,000-yard plateau (6,092).

2 Cardinals 34, Seahawks 24 September 17 Kingdome • 60,444

The Cardinals silenced the normally boisterous Kingdome partisans with a 34-24 victory. The veteran wide receiver tandem of Roy Green (8 rec., 166 yards, 3 TDs) and J.T. Smith (7 rec., 104 yards, 1 TD) were the chief culprits, benefiting from the marksmanship of quarterback Gary Hogeboom (18 comp., 24 att., 298 yards, 3 TDs, 1 int.). Phoenix controlled the ball (32:07-27:53), scored touchdowns on drives that began at their 4, 10, 22, and 26 yard lines, and converted 10 of 12 third-down plays. The injury-depleted Cardinal defense limited the Seahawks to 77 net yards rushing. Hogeboom completed eight of nine passes in the second half for 119 yards and three touchdowns. Green's touchdown grabs raised his career six-point total to 62, eclipsing receiver Sonny Randle's Cardinal career mark of 60.

The Cardinals concluded their string of three consecutive road games to open the season with a 35-7 loss to the Giants. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom was intercepted a career-high four times (on his first eight pass attempts), including one that Giant safety Terry Kinard returned 58 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. Running back Tony Jordan fumbled at the New York 16 yard line with 2:54 remaining in the first half and the Giants leading 17-0. Hogeboom also was thrown for the first five quarterback sacks the Cardinal offensive line had allowed. One of the five extended New York's lead to 25-0 when Giant linebacker Gary Reasons downed Hogeboom in the Phoenix end zone for a safety at 9:19 of the third quarter. New York quarterback Phil Simms completed 11 of 21 pass attempts for 202 yards and one touchdown. He was not intercepted. Former Cardinal Otis Anderson led the Giants' rushing attack with 98 yards on 21 carries, including a 36-yard fourth-quarter touchdown jaunt around right end.

Phoenix opened its regular-season home schedule with a 24-13 loss to San Diego. Four turnovers (two fumbles, two pass interceptions) proved to be the Cards' undoing. The game's momentum, which had spent most of the first three quarters on the Phoenix sideline, swung suddenly in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter. Leading 13-7 following a record-tying 60th career touchdown pass reception by wide receiver Roy Green from quarterback Gary Hogeboom on 59 yards, the Cardinals apparently halted a San Diego drive at the Phoenix four yard line when the Chargers settled for a 21-yard field goal. But a holding call on the three-pointer gave San Diego the ball first and goal from the Phoenix two yard line. One rush by Marion Butts and the Chargers had a touchdown and a 14-13 lead with 13:53 to play. On the second play of its next possession from their own 24 yard line, Cardinal fullback Earl Ferrell fumbled after catching a short pass from Hogeboom. Charger linebacker Billy Ray Smith returned the loose ball 15 yards for his first career touchdown and a 21-13 San Diego lead.

The injury-depleted Cardinals suffered a roller coaster 30-28 setback. Although the Redskins amassed 508 yards total offense (333 passing, 175 rushing), the first time a Cardinal opponent had cracked the 500-yard barrier since Miami on Sept. 30, 1984, Phoenix led from late in the second quarter (14-13) until early in the fourth stanza (21-13) and had possession of the ball on Washington's 40 yard line when time expired. Wide receiver J.T. Smith, the NFL's leading receiver, caught a career-high three touchdown passes. Versatile running back Vai Sikahema accounted for 193 total yards on kickoff returns (88), punt returns (62), rushes (27), and pass receiving (16). Fullback Earl Ferrell rambled for a 44-yard third-quarter touchdown, the longest Phoenix rush of the season.

Six pass interceptions, two lost fumbles, and six quarterback sacks (minus 43 yards) were more than the injury-riddled Cards could overcome. Playing without quarterback Gary Hogeboom (sore right elbow) and wide receiver Roy Green (fractured left clavicle), Phoenix played an effective first half, leading 5-0 at intermission after holding the Eagles to 78 total yards. Philadelphia took command with touchdown marches of 72 and 75 yards on its first two second-half possessions. The Phoenix defense recorded a season-high three pass interceptions and limited the Eagle passing attack to 192 yards. But the Cardinal offense, under the direction of second-year quarterback Tom Tupa who was making his first career start in his first appearance of the season at quarterback and only the third of his career, sputtered. Four of his six interceptions came in the second half, three in Eagle territory. Five of the six turnovers occurred in Philadelphia territory. It was the first time the Cardinals' offense has been held without a touchdown in nearly two years.

Sun Devil Stadium • 33,894

The injury-depleted Cardinals snapped their four-game losing streak by tallying four rushing touchdowns for the first time since 1984 en route to a 34-20 victory. Phoenix put points on the scoreboard on its first two possessions for the first time in 1989 and three of the first four times it had the ball to take a commanding 21-3 lead, mounting drives of 74, 29, and 60 yards to tally three touchdowns by its fullbacks. Starter Earl Ferrell posted the first two from one and six yards, and his back-up, Ron Wolley, added the third from five yards out. Leading 21-6 at halftime, the Cardinals took a commanding 31-13 lead in the second half by sandwiching a season-long 50-yard Al Del Greco field goal and three-yard Ferrell touchdown run around Atlanta's first touchdown. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom guided a balanced, resourceful offense that tallied 299 yards (174 passing, 125 rushing). He completed 17 of 25 passes for 181 yards. His lone interception occurred on a play that Phoenix regained possession of the ball when guard Lance Smith recovered a fumble by Atlanta's Deion Sanders.

Phoenix rode a strong defensive performance and the accurate right leg of kicker Al Del Greco to a 19-10. Cardinal defenders limited the Cowboys to 45 net yards rushing, 309 total net yards, and won the turnover war three (two interceptions, one fumble recovery) to none, the first time in 1989 the Cards did not suffer a turnover. The only Phoenix touchdown was scored by free safety Michael Zordich on a 16-yard interception return late in the third quarter, staking the Cardinals to a 13-3 lead. Strong safety Tim McDonald made the other interception at the Phoenix 13 yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter, thwarting a Cowboy drive. Reserve cornerback Marcus Turner recovered a fumbled punt at the Dallas 31 yard line, setting the table for Del Greco's fourth and game-clinching 42-yard field goal with 1:28 remaining. Del Greco registered four field goals in as many tries from 40, 25, 31, and 42 yards to give Phoenix leads of 3-0, 6-0, 16-3, and 19-10, respectively. They ran his streak of consecutive three-pointers to nine.

The Giants' defense limited Phoenix to 14 first downs and 186 total net yards and sacked Cardinal quarterback Gary Hogeboom seven times in the 1989 rematch. Unlike the 35-7 loss to New York at Giants Stadium on Sept. 24, the Cardinals were in contention throughout, including two late possessions following Al Del Greco's second field goal of the afternoon that narrowed the Giants' advantage to 20-13 with 5:43 to play. The Giants never were headed after driving the opening kickoff 71 yards. Quarterback Jeff Hostetler, substituting for injured incumbent Phil Simms, scrambled the final 19 yards for the touchdown, the first of two rushing six-pointers he tallied. Trailing 14-3 at halftime, the Cardinals drove 60 yards in seven plays following the second half kickoff to cut New York's lead to 14-10. But New York's defense, and another rash of Cardinal injuries, limited Phoenix the rest of the way. Cardinal safety Tim McDonald became the first Phoenix player to intercept two passes in a 1989 game.

The Cards swept their first season series against Dallas since 1970 with a palpitating 24-20 win. The dramatic ending featured three lead changes in the final 6:25. Trailing 13-7 at halftime with only 111 total yards and no offensive points, Tom Tupa replaced Gary Hogeboom at quarterback in the second half and led the comeback by completing 14 of 22 passes for 245 yards and two clutch touchdowns. The fireworks began with Dallas clinging to a 13-10 lead early in the fourth quarter. On third-and-10 from the Dallas 38 yard line, Tupa found wide receiver Ernie Jones in the end zone for a touchdown that staked Phoenix to a 17-13 lead with 6:25 to play. Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman retaliated by finding James Dixon for a 75-yard touchdown that gave the Cowboys a 20-17 lead with 1:43 left. Tupa answered three plays into the ensuing Phoenix possession with a 72-yard touchdown to Jones.

November 19
Anaheim Stadium • 53,176

The Cardinals suffered a one-sided 37-14 loss to the Rams at Anaheim Stadium in an afternoon that began ominously when Ram strong safety Michael Stewart intercepted a pass from Card quarterback Gary Hogeboom on the game's third play from scrimmage and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown. The Rams never looked back, increasing their lead to 24-0 by halftime and 27-0 in the third quarter before Phoenix dented the scoreboard on a 77-yard touchdown pass from relief quarterback Tom Tupa to wide receiver Don Holmes. It was Holmes' first career touchdown and the Cardinals' longest pass play of the season. The contest marked the NFL debut of rookie Cardinal quarterback Timm Rosenbach. He guided the last three Phoenix possessions of the afternoon, driving the Cards 51 yards on 10 plays for their second and final touchdown of the day on a one-yard plunge by running back Tony Jordan. Running back Vai Sikahema made his first career start.

Kicker Al Del Greco's bid for his third field goal of the game sailed just left with one second remaining as Tampa Bay bettered Phoenix to spoil Hank Kuhlmann's debut as the Cardinals' interim head coach. It was a day for "could have beens" for the Cardinals. They held a 10-7 lead just before halftime on a 21-yard Del Greco field goal and extended the advantage to 13-7 late in the third quarter on another three-pointer by Del Greco, this time from 28 yards. With less than a minute remaining, Buc quarterback Vinnie Testaverde found wide receiver Mark Carrier in the end zone for the game-winning five-yard touchdown pass. Punter Rich Camarillo enjoyed another outstanding day, bettering his NFC-leading 43.9-yard average with a 44-yard mean on six kicks, including a season-long of 58 yards and four punts inside the Tampa Bay 20 yard line. Quarterback Tom Tupa made his second career start. The Cardinal defense registered a season-high five quarterback sacks.

Phoenix suffered its second loss in as many outings under interim Head Coach Hank Kuhlmann, a 29-10 decision to Washington at Sun Devil Stadium, giving the Redskins a two-game sweep of the season series. Knotted 10-10 at halftime, the Redskins regained the lead by opening the second half with a 61-yard, 11-play drive, culminated by a one-yard plunge by running back Gerald Riggs for the touchdown. They took firm control of the contest on the Cardinals' ensuing possession when rookie Washington cornerback A.J. Johnson intercepted a pass by Card quarterback Tom Tupa and returned it 59 yards for a touchdown. The Cardinals offense sputtered again under the direction of two quarterbacks—starter Gary Hogeboom, who was forced to the sideline after dislocating the index finger on his throwing hand in the second quarter, and Tupa.

Phoenix fell for the fourth consecutive week and for the third time in as many outings under interim Head Coach Hank Kuhlmann. The defense posted its strongest effort of the season, holding the Raiders without a touchdown until L.A.'s final possession. Raider quarterback Steve Beuerlein completed only 13 of 30 passes (43 percent) and was sacked four times (minus 25 yards). The Cards forced two fumbles, recovering one (middle linebacker Eric Hill). Five Beuerlein passes were deflected. Six L.A. drives ended in field goal attempts (three successful). And a goal-line stand nearly kept the Raiders' only touchdown out of the end zone in the final minute. Trailing 14-9 with less than 10 minutes remaining, the Raiders covered 46 yards on 13 plays to score their winning touchdown but only after running seven plays inside the Phoenix 10 yard line. Cardinals quarterback Tom Tupa made his NFL punting debut in relief of injured regular Rich Camarillo. The Phoenix rushing attack cracked the 100-yard plateau for the first time in six games.

Phoenix suffered its first shutout since 1985, dropping a nationally-televised decision to the eventual AFC champion Denver Broncos. Rookie quarterback Timm Rosenbach's first career start lasted six possessions. Neither he nor second-quarter replacement Gary Hogeboom could move a Phoenix offense that mustered only seven first downs and gained just 101 total yards (79 passing, 22 rushing), fourth-lowest total in franchise history and the lowest output since posting only 49 yards at Philadelphia on Dec. 4, 1955. Denver methodically built an insurmountable lead by scoring in every quarter, beginning with a defensive tally when Bronco linebacker Karl Mecklenburg returned a fumbled center snap 23 yards for this first career touchdown. The Cardinals had only three possessions in the second half and crossed midfield on offense just twice. Cardinal highlights came from the defense. Outside linebacker Ken Harvey made 15 solo tackles, including one sack. Cornerback Cedric Mack intercepted two John Elway passes, Mack's third and fourth thefts of the season.

The Cardinals closed a disappointing 5-11 season with their fifth consecutive loss, a 31-14 verdict on a cold Christmas Eve at Philadelphia. The Cards drove 42 yards on their first possession to take a 7-0 lead, a drive culminated by a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Gary Hogeboom to wide receiver Roy Green. Green's milestone grab was his 61st career touchdown reception, breaking Sonny Randle's franchise record of 60. The playoff-bound Eagles took command with three unanswered first-half touchdowns. Hogeboom and Green responded with another touchdown connection from 36 yards to cut Philadelphia's halftime advantage to 21-14. A stifling Eagle defense held Phoenix scoreless in the second half, limiting the Cards to 128 total yards (29 rushing, 99 passing) while the Philadelphia offense registered 10 insurance points. The ball-controlling Eagle rushing attack gained 267 of the team's 432 yards of total offense. Card punter Rich Camarillo closed the season with a league-leading 43.3-yard average.

Injuries

The injury-filled 1989 season ended with 21 Cardinals who started at least one game missing at least one week.

In addition to the injured Cardinals listed below, center Derek Kennard (alcohol treatment program), defensive end Freddie Joe Nunn (substance abuse policy violation), and guard Todd Peat (waived) missed games for non-injury reasons.

Incumbent starting quarterback Neil Lomax, who did not take a snap in 1989 due to an arthritic condition in his left hip, could be considered the 22nd starter to miss time.

The Cardinals listed only six starters who did not miss a game. Offensively they were guard Lance Smith and tight end Rob Awalt. On defense they were linebackers Anthony Bell and Ken Harvey, cornerback Cedric Mack, and Pro Bowl strong safety Tim McDonald. Awalt, however, did not start the season finale at Philadelphia due to sore ribs.

Wide Receiver Sonny Randy starred for the Cardinals from 1959-66.

Franchise History

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League, boast the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!"

The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team had to disband.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marston Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, bought the Cardinals in 1933.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wis. joined the NFL, forcing the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The Cardinals also moved into their new home, Comiskey Park, the same year.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925.

A Chicago doctor, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40-6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16-14-3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner, Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Bill Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Chicago's Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946. And in 1947, the "million dollar backfield" was completed when halfback Charley Trippi became a Cardinal.

Coached by Jimmy Conzelman, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and a 28-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL championship game on the frozen Comiskey Park turf.

But the '47 title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization when the

April death of Bidwill deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years. With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet Bidwill, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular-season record.

However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' post-season dream in the first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboys' assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home. Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first post-season berth since 1982. However, the Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Following two seasons in their new locale, the Cardinals changed the face of their team by hiring former Washington assistant Joe Bugel as the new Phoenix head coach.

Heritage

Reflecting the rich tradition of the franchise, 12 members of the Cardinals have been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. Wilson, the team's current general manager, was the most recent selection in 1978.

Series Notes

The Cardinals have doubled Atlanta's wins in the series, posting an advantage of 8-4 dating back to the Falcons' inaugural 1966 season ... the Cardinals were victims of Atlanta's first home victory, a 16-10 verdict on Dec. 11, 1966 ... the Cards won five straight games from 1971-78 ... Phoenix owns a 4-3 mark on the road against Atlanta.

Last Meeting

October 22, 1989 (H) • Cardinals 34-20

The Cardinals snapped a four-game losing streak by posting four touchdowns for the first time since 1984 en route to a 34-20 victory in Sun Devil Stadium. Phoenix scored on three of its first four possessions to take a 21-3 lead, then rode a balanced attack (174 yards passing/125 rushing), a three-touchdown day by Earl Ferrell, and two second-half field goals by Al Del Greco (50 and 22 yards) for the victory. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom, who missed the previous week's loss to the Eagles, returned to complete 17 of 25 passes for 181 yards in the win.

Series Notes

The Bills hold a 3-2 advantage in the series, dating back to a 28-23 Cardinal win in 1971 ... the last Cardinal victory in the series was a 37-7 triumph in 1984 ... the Cardinals are 2-1 at home and 1-1 on the road against Buffalo.

Last Meeting

September 21, 1986 (A) • Buffalo 17-10

In a study in futility, the Cardinals lost a 17-10 decision at Buffalo despite winning the statistical battle in virtually every category. The Cards outgained the Bills by sizeable margins in total yards (381-176), first downs (25-10), plays (74-42), and time of possession (37:14-22:46), but Buffalo forged ahead 17-3 with 12:53 remaining, then repelled a late Cardinal rally. The Cardinals marched 73 yards on four plays, culminated by a 19-yard Neil Lomax touchdown pass to Vai Sikahema with 58 seconds left. A successful on-sides kick followed but four consecutive incompletions halted the threat at the Buffalo 39-yard line with 30 seconds left on the clock.

Series Notes

In regular-season play, the Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest rivalry in NFL history, dating back to the 1920s and the days of Jim Thorpe and leather helmets ... the Bears maintain a 52-25-6 advantage in the series but the Cardinals have won the last two and four of the last six meetings ... in the most recent clash, the Cardinals came away with a 38-21 victory ... the Bears won 19 of their next 23 games en route to the Super Bowl title following the 1985 season.

Last Meeting

October 14, 1984 (H) • Cardinals 38-21

In a classic match-up between the Bears top-ranked defense and the Cardinals' number one scoring offense in the NFC, the St. Louis aerial attack proved too much for Chicago as Neil Lomax passed for 271 yards and Roy Green caught six passes for 166 yards to propel a 38-21 Card win. The lead changed hands seven times and the Cardinals enjoyed a 24-21 lead midway through the fourth quarter before the Cardinal special teams turned the momentum. Linebackers Bob Harris and Niko Noga teamed for the club's first blocked punt since 1978 to set up a game-clinching nine-yard touchdown run by Lomax. The Cardinal defense held Chicago to eight first downs and only 20 yards passing in the second half.

Series Notes

Dallas leads the series 32-21-1 ... the Cardinals swept both contests last year for the first time since 1970 ... the Cards took a 19-10 decision Oct. 29, 1989 at Dallas, then made a thrilling comeback two weeks later ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cardinals' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 and prevailed 17-14 in the ABC-televised Monday night game on Sept. 12, 1988 ... since 1980, Dallas holds a 12-7 series lead ... at one stretch from 1967-86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games, including undefeated streaks of six and seven games and one home stretch of 13-2.

Last Meeting

November 12, 1989 (H) • Cardinals 24-20

Phoenix took a palpitating 24-20 victory in Sun Devil Stadium to complete its first series sweep of the Cowboys in 20 years. The dramatic ending featured three lead changes in the final 6:25. Tom Tupa opened the second half at quarterback and connected with Ernie Jones on a 38-yard touchdown strike that staked Phoenix to a 17-13 lead with 6:25 to play. Dallas answered with a 75-yard scoring strike to take a 20-17 edge with 1:43 left. Tupa then hit Jones with a 72-yard bomb with 37 seconds showing on the clock for the game-winner.

Series Notes

The clubs have played just three times during the regular season ... the first contest ended in a 17-17 tie in 1973, the second a 7-0 Bronco win in 1977, and most recently a 37-0 shutout by Denver last year ... in the preseason, the Cardinals are 1-5 versus the Broncos, their only win a 17-13 victory in 1972.

Last Meeting

August 13, 1977 (H) • Denver 37-0

The Cardinals suffered their first shutout since 1985 with a 37-0 whitewashing by the Super Bowl-bound Broncos. The game marked the starting debut of rookie quarterback Timm Rosenbach, who completed 2 of 8 passes for 14 yards in six possessions. Scoring in each quarter, Denver took a 20-0 halftime lead, then tallied on its first two possessions of the second half to seal the win. The Cardinals' offense, with only three possessions in the second stanza, crossed midfield just twice and never came closer to the goal line than the Denver 39-yard line.

Series Notes

The Packers hold a 41-22-4 advantage in the Cardinals' second-oldest rivalry that dates back to 1921 ... Green Bay figured in the Cardinals' last playoff appearance, handing St. Louis a 41-16 loss in the 1982 Super Bowl Tournament ... the Cards also faced the Packers in the 1965 Playoff Bowl (a non-advancing post-season game), earning a 24-17 victory ... the series has been one of streaks ... the Cardinals claimed victory in four-, five-, and six-game winning skeins while Green Bay authored streaks of 17, 5, and 4 (twice) games (1937-46).

Last Meeting

December 18, 1988 (H) • Green Bay 26-17

The Cardinals ended their inaugural season in Arizona with a 26-17 loss to Green Bay. For the second consecutive week, the Cards spotted their opponent a substantial lead as the Packers sailed to a 13-0 advantage before Phoenix scored 17 straight points to take a second-quarter edge. The Cards crossed midfield just three times in the second half and came away empty-handed twice inside the Packers' 25-yard line. Freddie Joe Nunn ran his sack total to 14, second among NFL linemen, while wide receiver J.T. Smith finished with 83 catches, second-best in team annals to his own 1982 club record of 91.

The Cardinals, with a 5-4 series advantage, have won the last three meetings and five of the six preseason contests ... the Colts won the first three matchups by a cumulative score of 90-27 with victories in 1961 (16-0), '64 (47-27) and '68 (28-0) ... 1990 marks the first home game in the series for the Cardinals since 1978, and the Colts first visit to Arizona.

Last Meeting

September 16, 1984(A) • Cardinals 34-33

Trailing by nine points with 3:48 showing on the scoreboard clock, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with wide receiver Roy Green for a 56-yard scoring play, and place kicker Neil O'Donoghue booted a 46-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining for a thrilling 34-33 win in the Hoosier Dome. The game was marked by six lead changes. The big play was evident throughout the game. The Cardinals scored long touchdowns on plays of 25, 47, and 56 yards while the Colts' long-play scoring came on 96- and 63-yard plays.

The Rams hold a 15-9-2 advantage in the series dating back to 1948 when the two teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... the Cardinals' 41-27 win in 1988 halted a six-game Rams winning streak while the Rams defeated the Cardinals in both the preseason and regular season last year ... the Cardinals are 0-4 in preseason games against the Rams ... all four contests were staged on the road ... in regular-season action, the Rams handed the Cards a 35-23 defeat in a first-round playoff game in 1975.

Last Meeting

November 19, 1989 (A) • L.A. Rams 37-14

The Cardinals suffered a one-sided 37-14 loss at Anaheim Stadium, a defeat that touched off a string of six straight losses to end the season. L.A. cruised to a 24-0 halftime lead and 27-0 third-quarter margin before Phoenix dented the scoreboard with a 77-yard touchdown pass from Tom Tupa to Don Holmes. The game marked the debut of rookie Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach, the third Phoenix signal-caller of the day. Rosenbach connected on 7 of 14 pass attempts for 81 yards, providing one touchdown and seeing a second halted by an interception in the end zone.

Miami has won all five contests by scores of 31-10 (1972), 55-14 (1977), 24-10 (1978), 20-7 (1981), and 36-28 (1984).

Last Meeting

September 30, 1984 (H) • Miami 38-26

The Cardinals amassed 445 yards total offense and put 28 points on the scoreboard, but Miami passer Dan Marino enjoyed his best day as a pro with 429 yards to propel Miami to a 36-28 win. With Ottis Anderson nursing a hamstring injury, Stump Mitchell saw his third starting assignment in the NFL and responded with 109 yards and two touchdowns rushing. Quarterback Neil Lomax connected on 22 of 37 passes for 308 yards, his first 300-yard regular-season passing day. After Miami jumped to a 12-0 second-quarter lead, the Cardinals continually countered the Dolphins' scoring but could come no closer than five points the rest of the game.

Last Meeting

December 2, 1984 (A) • Cardinals 33-10

The Cardinals scored 27 first-half points, their best opening stanza since 1983, en route to a 33-10 victory over the Patriots in Sullivan Stadium. Ottis Anderson rushed for 136 yards as the Cards ground out 220 yards rushing against the fifth-rated run defense in the AFC. Not to be outdone by the offense that also held the ball for over 20 minutes in the first half, the Cardinal defense limited New England to just three first downs in the first half and also rolled up a season-high eight quarterback sacks.

Series Notes

The Cardinals maintain a 10-5 series edge dating back to 1967 — the games characteristically have been high-scoring ... the Cards have averaged 26 points, the Saints 20 points in the 15 games ... the two teams combined for 93 points in the Saints' 51-42 win in 1969, just 10 points shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined single-game points ... they also set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in the game as Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring strikes ... though it was preseason, the Cardinals provided New Orleans with its first franchise victory, a 23-14 decision in Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

Last Meeting

October 11, 1987 (H) • Cardinals 24-19

The Cardinals equalled an NFL record with two fumble recoveries for touchdowns in beating the Saints 24-19. However, the Cardinals were limited to four net yards passing (3-10)—the fifth-lowest total in club history and second fewest yards passing since 1940—and set a club mark with no passing first downs. Mark Jackson notched a 77-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the first quarter and Leonard Smith followed suit with a 29-yard fumble return for six points in the second period as the Cards took a 17-6 halftime lead. Jackson's 77-yarder was the club's longest fumble return for a touchdown in 18 years. The Cards induced four Saints turnovers and blocked one point after touchdown.

Series Notes

One of the NFL's oldest rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 12-6-1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 60-33-2 overall ... the teams have clashed 95 times since 1926 ... the Cards boast the longest winning streak, a seven-game stretch from 1974-77 ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game in the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14-0 halftime deficit for a 26-14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... since 1980, the Cardinals are 4-5-1 at home and 2-7 on the road against the Giants.

Last Meeting

November 5, 1989 (H) • N.Y. Giants 20-13

The Giants' rock-solid defense limited Phoenix to a season-low 14 first downs and 186 total net yards and sacked Cardinal quarterback Gary Hogeboom seven times to propel a 20-13 Giants' victory. Unlike a 35-7 loss earlier in the season, the Cardinals were in contention the entire game. Trailing 14-3 at halftime, Phoenix drove 60 yards in seven plays with the opening kickoff to narrow the margin to 14-10, but the Giants' defense limited the Cardinals to only a field goal the rest of the game.

Series Notes

The Cardinals hold a 44-38-5 advantage in the series dating back to 1935 ... in the last five years, the Cardinals have lost seven of 10 contests ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the mid-1940s ... the Chicago Cardinals edged the Eagles 28-21 in frozen Comiskey Park on December 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7-0 victory in Shibe Park on December 16 to become champions for 1948.

Last Meeting

December 24, 1989 (A) • Philadelphia 31-14

The Cardinals drove 42 yards on their first possession to take a 7-0 lead but Philadelphia took command with 21 unanswered points en route to a 31-14 Christmas Eve victory. Phoenix cut the lead to 21-14 at halftime but the stifling Eagle defense held the Cards scoreless in the second half, limiting Phoenix to 128 total yards (29 rushing/99 passing). The Eagles maintained an advantage of nearly 13 minutes in ball control, amassed 267 yards rushing, and added 10 insurance points in the second half.

Two Roy Green touchdown receptions (62) broke Sonny Randle's franchise record of 60 touchdown catches.

Series Notes

The Seahawks hold a 4-2 advantage in the preseason series dating back to 1981 ... the two teams first met in 1981 as the Cardinals prevailed 30-21 in the Kingdome ... Seattle then won by scores of 14-0 in 1982 and 17-7 in 1984 ... the only Cardinals victory in three outings is a 28-21 decision in 1987 ... Seattle has won the last two preseason meetings, 21-7 in 1988 and 16-10 last year ... the Cardinals have won all three regular-season battles with the Seahawks, 30-24 at Seattle in 1976, 33-28 at St. Louis in 1984, and 34-24 last year in the Kingdome ... Seattle is the only team yet to defeat the Cardinals in regular-season play.

Last Meeting

September 17, 1989 (A) • Cardinals 34-24

Roy Green (8-166, 3 TDs) and J.T. Smith (7-104, 1 TD) combined for 15 receptions, 270 yards receiving, and all four touchdowns as the Cardinals sailed to a 34-24 victory in the hostile Kingdome. Phoenix controlled the ball well, scoring touchdowns on drives that began on their own 4, 10, 22 and 26 yard lines, and converted 10 of 12 third-down plays.

Gary Hogeboom enjoyed a fine day at quarterback, completing 18 of 24 attempts for 298 yards and four touchdowns. Green's three touchdowns raised his overall career touchdown total to 61, eclipsing wide receiver Sonny Randle's franchise record of 60.

Series Notes

The Redskins have won 25 of the last 30 games and hold a 53-31-1 advantage in the series that dates to 1937 ... the Cardinals' 30-21 win September 25, 1988 was a milestone, providing the Cards their first regular-season victory in Arizona ... that triumph also snapped a seven-game Redskin winning streak as the Cardinals would then go on to defeat all three Super Bowl winners from the previous three seasons in Sun Devil Stadium (Washington, N.Y. Giants and San Francisco).

Last Meeting

December 3, 1989 • Washington 29-10

After battling Washington to a 10-10 halftime deadlock, the Cardinals saw one interception returned for a score and another in the end zone stifle a scoring drive as they dropped a 29-10 decision. Starting quarterback Gary Hogeboom was forced to the sidelines after suffering a dislocated finger in the second quarter. Tom Tupa entered the contest to complete 10 of 20 attempts for 124 yards but also tossed two costly interceptions. The Cardinals managed only 29 yards rushing, their second-worst output of the season.

Cardinal Head Coach Joe Bugel addresses his "Hogs" at halftime during his tenure as the Washington Redskins' offensive line coach.

Instant Replay

For the fifth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of instant replay on a one-year basis.

There is one significant change in the system from 1989. All replay reviews which involve contact to the field from the replay booth will be a maximum of two minutes in duration, timed from the moment when the umpire signals timeout.

The replay official will be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by instant replay in each of the previous four seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537
1989	224	65	492

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4. In 1990, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed instant replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The league experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed calls, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the replay official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The replay official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline replay booth which will house two television monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The replay official makes the decision although a communicator (normally a member of the league office staff) and a technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" instant replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that instant replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls.

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment and off-sides
3. Grasp of face mask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeling
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the replay official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show. The replay official does not hear the television commentators.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The replay official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The replay official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the replay official believes an error may have been made, the umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The replay official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The replay official will inform the umpire of his decision and the referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

Training Complex

An artist's rendering of the Cardinals Training Complex and Corporate headquarters. Located in south Tempe, Arizona and scheduled to open early in the 1990 football season.

The new home of the Cardinals is a 94,000-square-foot training complex that unites all aspects of the team's football operations under in one impressive setting.

Scheduled to open early in the 1990 football season, the complex integrates state-of-the-art training facilities with premier office space, communications capabilities, and public meeting space.

Situated on 14.7 acres of land in south Tempe, Arizona, the complex possesses many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and as an Arizona landmark. Inside and out, the Cards' new home boasts many innovative features.

It incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which intergrate it into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms open to three playing fields (one lighted) on five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

An attached public area, ticket office, and public relations building complete the NFL's newest complex.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. The fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, simulating the position of the sun under game conditions.

Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League to its glamorous past in 1988 when the Phoenix Cardinals also took residence in one of the nation's finest football facilities.

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a spectacular setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona just southwest of Phoenix.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance records. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1990 will be over 74,000. Improvements costing about $20 million over the past three years have made the facility a football showcase.

The bowl (south) end was connected two years ago by Arizona State's dramatic six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, another $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, new broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and replay officials, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

A new playing surface of Tifway "419" turf, an optimal sports turf, will be in place for the 1990 season. A major three-component project is planned that will widen and lower the field and include a new turf system with subsurface drainage.

Picturesque Sun Devil Stadium, situated between two buttes in Tempe, Ariz., will play host to the Super Bowl in 1993.

NFL Items

1990 Player Rule Changes

- Reduced the time interval between plays from 45/30 seconds to 45/25 seconds.
- Whenever a player goes out of bounds outside two minutes of the first half and five minutes of the second half, the game clock is to be started when the ball is spotted at the hash mark and the referee gives his ready signal rather than on the snap.
- Except in the last two minutes of the first half and the last five minutes of the second half and unless there is an injury or television utilizes a commercial opportunity, the game clock will be restarted following a kickoff return when the referee gives the ready signal rather than on the snap.
- Clarified the penalty for a player who butts, spears, or rams an opponent to make it clear that, in addition to a loss of 15 yards, the player may be disqualified if the action is judged to be of a flagrant or vicious nature.
- Reaffirmed the league's long-standing uniform code rules will be strictly enforced and was changed to permit a team to wear either all white or all black shoes whichever it chooses prior to each season. Note: A kicker may wear black or white shoes when he is in the act of kicking.
- Permitted still photos shot by game video cameras to be used during the playing of the game so long as the receiving unit is not located in the bench area.
- The yard lines marking the five yard lines will be extended four inches beyond the sideline six foot white border to assist in properly setting the chains at the start of each series.
- Changes the spot of enforcement for an illegal forward pass from the location of the ball when it is released to the spot where any part of the passer's body is beyond the line of scrimmage when the ball is released.
